Be a booster; bury the hammer. By united effort we can make Concrete one of the best towns in the county. Try it.

CONCRETE LOSES TO LEAGUE PLAYERS IN BEST GAME OF YEAR

LOCAL PLAYERS HOLD BLOEDEL DONOVAN STARS TO 6-4 SCORE —HAMILTON BEATS SUPERIOR BY 9 TO 7.

The baseball fans who journeyed to the ball park last Sunday, and there was a large number of them, had the pleasure of witnessing the best game played here this season. The Bloedel Donovan team of the Northwestern league, won the game, as was expected, but the local amateurs gave the professionals a real contest and at several stages of the game had the leaguers guessing. The Concrete team played pretty ball all through the game, especially on the defense. A few errors were made, but they were of the excusable kind, and except in the first inning, did no real damage. The locals lost several good chances to score through poor work on the bases.

The pitching on both teams was of the classy order, Bryan Lewis being on the mound for Concrete and his kid brother Earl heaved them over for the leaguers. Bryan had one bad inning, the first, and after that settled down and outpitched the youngster. Both were given fine support and the playing was the snappiest of the season.

Concrete lost the game in the first inning when Keene was safe on Harvey's overthrow of first, Will Lewis, Hawkes and Follman hit in order, and then after Jensen had flied out to Wiseman, Tryggvi and Staggs contributed two more hits, the net result being four runs for the visitors. Portman hit into a double play and ended the inning. Bloedel Donovan scored one each in the eighth and ninth for a total of six. Herrle scored the first run for Concrete in the third when he hit for two bases and came in on Fulk's single. In the fourth the home gang seemed to have a fine chance to tie up the game, but poor running killed the chance, Zobrist scoring the only run of the inning. Lewis tallied a run in the fifth, and Harvey brought the total up to four by spiking the plate in the eighth.

Batteries—Bloedel Donovan, E. Lewis and Follman; Concrete, Bryan Lewis and Stafford.

The opening game of the doubleheader, between the Modern Woodmen team of Hamilton and the Superior term, was called at the end of the sixth inning with the score 9 to 7 in favor of the Woodmen. The Superior batters were hitting Smith hard in the closing innings and it is almost certain that the visitors would have lost had the game gone the full nine innings.

Batteries—Woodmen: Dewey Smith and Wilson; Superior: Brayton and Mitchell.

CONCRETE SCHOOL OPENS NEXT TUESDAY MORNING

In common with nearly all the schools in Skagit county, the Concrete school will reopen again next Tuesday morning, September 4. The school buildings have been overhauled and cleaned up during the past week and everything is now ready for the youngsters and teachers to settle down to work. It is hoped that all pupils will be on hand on time Tuesday so that seating arrangements and classes can be settled without delay.

Supt. Moore will be at the school house this afternoon and all day Monday to meet high school students and others who wish to confer with him in regard to studies or other matters before school starts. He would be glad to meet all high school students before school opens so that a course of study satisfactory to all can be worked out.

There have been comparatively few changes in the city during the year and it is expected that the opening enollment will be about the same as for the past few months of last term, with probably a small increase.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD SUNDAY FOR P. C. TATHAM

Funeral services for P. C. Tatham, who was killed at the McNeill-O'Hearne camp here last Thursday, were held at the Baker chapel in Sedro-Woolley last Sunday afternoon. The services were in charge of Rev. A. M. Steele, pastor of the Sedro-Woolley Methodist church. A large number of friends and neighbors from Hamilton and other upper valley points attended the services.

P. C. Tatham was born in North Carolina in June, 1874. He came to Hamilton in 1902, and made his home there since that time, working in the logging camps through the valey. He is survived by a son, Claude, his wife having passed away while on a visit to North Carolina about three years ago.

JOHN NELSON IS INJURED IN MILL AT CLEAR LAKE

John Nelson, a shingle sawyer employed in the shingle mill of the Clear Lake Lumber company at Clear Lake, was badly cut while at work about a week ago. He was just finishing up his day's work when in some way his left hand came in contact with the shingle saw, severing the third finger near the middle joint and cutting his thumb so badly that amputation may be necessary. He is now in the Clear Lake hospital, where skin grafting is being tried in an effort to save the thumb. He will be laid up for three or four months. Mr. Nelson made his home here for several years, working as a sawyer in the mill of the Baker River Lumber company.

SEDRO-WOOLLEY MEN TRY TO FISH WITHOUT LICENSE

Two Sedro-Woolley young men were arrested yesterday by Deputy Game Warden Gallagher for fishing in Grandy lake without going through the formality of first securing a fishing license. They were haled before Justice Wolfe in this city yesterday afternoon and were taxed $10 and costs apiece to teach them that it is sometimes expensive to save the cost of a license when going fishing.

EVERGREEN BERRIES ARE NOW RIPE IN THE VALLEY

The Evergreen blackberries, which grow wild in great abundance in the Skagit valley, are now getting ripe and pickers are now making trips to their favorite patches and return with filled pails. The largest patches are around Hamilton, at Birdsview and at Cowden's spur.

MANY CONCRETE PEOPLE ATTEND ROCKPORT DANCE

Quite a number of local dancers motored to Rockport last Saturday evening to attend the dance given in the community hall at that place. All who made the trip say that they had a fine time, and that the music provided by Ladd's orchestra was entirely satisfactory. These dances are being held every two weeks, the next one being next Saturday, September 8. Rockport has a good hall and a good floor, and the dances are drawing large crowds.

GOOD PIGTURES COMING TO THEATER NEXT WEEK

The program of the Concrete theater for the coming week contains a number of fine photoplays, and several that may be classed as features. The biggest picture of the week is "The Third Alarm," to be shown on Tuesday night. The story tells of two veteran fire fighters, a man and a horse, how they were retired as old and useless, and how they finally won a home. The story is full of action, especially the scenes showing a modern fire department fighting a fire.

Tonight the attraction is "Night Life in Hollywood," a story of life behind the scenes in the motion picture colony. The story is full of interest and one all will enjoy. Tomorrow night comes the De Mile production. "Why Change Your Wife," a comedy drama of domestic life featuring Thomas Meighan and Gloria Swanson. Thursday night Buck Jones will be seen in "Bells of San Juan," a western drama of life on the Teras border.

Next Saturday Dick Hatton comes in "Unblazed Trails," a story of love and vengeance that has a number of unusual situations. Next Sunday charming Dorothy Gish is featured in "Remodeling Her Husband," an enjoyable comedy in which she marries a flirt and cures him of the habit. There are plenty of laughs in this picture.

LADIES' AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING NEXT THURSDAY

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold its next regular meeting next Thursday afternoon, September 6, at the church parlors. There are some matters of importance to come up at this meeting and it is hoped that all members will turn out. Refreshments will be served at the close of the business meeting.

ETHEL TRACY RESIGNS POSITION AS TEACHER

Miss Ethel Tracy, who has been re-elected as teacher of the fourth grade in the Concrete school, tendered her resignation to the school board Thursday, and her resignation was accepted. Miss Tracy had been elected to fill an unexpected vacancy in the Bellingham school, and as she considered it a better position than the one here, she wished to accept it. She has taught in the Concrete school for the past three years and is an able and experienced teacher, and the youngsters and patrons are sorry that she is leaving. The school board has several applications under consideration and will have a competent teacher here to fil the vacancy before the school starts Tuesday.

TOWN COUNCIL TO HOLD ITS MEETING WEDNESDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the town council will be held next Wednesday evening, September 5, when the city fathers will pass on the accumulated bills of the past month and will take np any matters that appear for consideration. All persons having claims to file against the city should turn them in to the clerk before Wednesday or they will very likely have to lay over for another month. So far as known, there will be only routine matters up for consideration, the annual budget for 1924 being an exception.

FORMER CONCRETE GIRL MARRIED IN VANCOUVER

Last week's Burlington Jouurnal carries the announcement of the wedding of Miss Lucile Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Owen of that city, to W. C. McDaniels of Burlington. The wedding was performed last week in Vancouver, B. C. The Owen family made their home in this city for a number of years and the bride was a student in the Concrete school a few years ago. Her friends join in extending best wishes.

HIGHLAND DAIRY WINS IN MT. VERNON CITY LEAGUE

The Mount Vernon City league closed its season last Tuesday night with a game between the Highland Dairy and Band teams, the former winning the game and the pennant. Colvin, the young star of the Concrete team, was on the mound for the dairymen and held the bandsmen to six hits and also scored four of the eight runs made by his team.

SCHOOL BONDS ARE AGAIN REJECTED BY ATTORNEY GENERAL

HOLDS THAT ISSUE DOES NOT COMPLY WITH NEW STATE BONDING LAW—MAY CALL ANOTHER ELECTION SOON.

The second attempt of the people of the Concrete school district to vote bonds for the construction of a new school house and a gymnasium has been turned down. John D. Dunbar, attorney general of the state of Washington, to whom the proposed issue was submitted for approval, holds that the notice of election does not comply with the new bonding law passed by the last legislature, as the law was defined in a decision of the state supreme court some weeks ago. A rehearing of the decision has been asked, and if granted, it is possible that the ruling will be modified so as to make this issue valid.

The new law provides that all bonds issued in this state must mature serially and in such amounts that the principal and interest of the bonds may be paid by an equal tax levy carried through the life of the bonds, which will be twenty years for the proposed issue here. As the election notice here provided for the payment of $1,000 and interest each year for 13 years and $1,500 and interest for the next seven years, the attorney general holds that these payments could not be met through an equalized levy. As the interest rate on the bonds is not known until the bonds are sold, and as the assessed valuation of every district varies from year to year, it appears impossible to fix the gradual maturities to comply with the law, and neither the state legislature, the supreme court nor the attorney general attempts to say how this can be done. There are about thirty bond issues in various parts of the state being held up until the workings of the law are finally determined.

A form of notice that it is believed will be held to comply with the law has been sent to the local school board by the attorney general's office, but the board is inclined to wait a few weeks until a more definite ruling is made before calling another election. It is likely that an election will be called some time during September, and if the bonds are approved, it is hoped to have the gymnasium, at least, built in time for use during the coming winter.

LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE TO BE MARRIED TOMORROW

Miss Amelia Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank, and Louis Bertoldi, young people who are well and favorably known in the Italian colony in this city, will be united in marriage at noon tomorrow. In the evening a reception will be held and a wedding supper served in the Italian-American hall, to which many invitations have been issued. Miss Frank came to Concrete as a baby and is popular among the young people of the city. Mr. Bertoldi has been a resident of the city for several years The wedding and reception promises to be one of the events of the season.

SEDRO-WOOLLEY MASONS HAVE PICNIC AT NEWHALEM

About 175 members of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges of Sedro-Woolley enjoyed a fine outing at Newhalem last Sunday. They motored to Rockport in th morning and from there took special cars over the Seattle railroad to the camp. The Masons at Newhalem had prepared a fine picnic dinner in a grove across the river from the camp, and this was the first attraction. After dinner the visitors were shown the sights of the huge power project, after which they were given another meal at the camp mess hall before starting home. Several Masons from this city accompanied the party.

RAPID HEADWAY IS BEING MADE ON NEW ROAD TO BAKER LAKE

WORK OF CLEARING AND GRADING ROAD IS BEING RUSHED—SKAGIT COUNTY PART WILL SOON BE OPEN.

Work on the new Baker lake highway from this city to Baker lake is going ahead rapidly, and the forestry engineers in charge of the construction are in hopes that the road will be open to travel before the end of the year. Contracts for clearing and grading the road have been let in sections and work is now going ahead rapidly in a dozen places along the highway. According to reports received here the greater part of the right of way for the road has been cleared from the Skagit county line to Baker lake, and this work is almost certain to be completed before rainy weather starts. Grading work has been started at several points in the forest reserve, and additional contracts are being let as rapidly as the road is cleared and ready for grading.

As it is not feasible to use machinery on the part of the road within the government reserve, as there is no way to get the heavy equipment on the ground, the work is being done by teams, with plows and scrapers. Dirt is not being moved as rapidly as it would be by a steam shovel and trucks, but the progress made iis considered satisfactory and the various contractors are doing good work.

The extension of the Skagit county road from Bear creek to the county line, to connect with the government road at the boundary of the national forest reserve, is nearing completion. A steam shovel and several gravel trucks have been making the dirt fly on this stretch of highway, and indications are that the road will be open for travel early this month. This extension is two miles long through rough country and many difficulties have been encountered by the construction crew. The opening of this extension will be of great assistance to the crews working on the government road as it will give them a better chance to get in supplies and equipment.

While the building of the Baker lake highway has not attracted very much attention through the valley, it will undoubtedly prove one of the biggest assets of this city. It will open up to tourist travel some of the finest scenery in the world, and when it is extended around Mt. Baker, by way of Glacier, to Bellingham, as now planned, it will open up one of the most wonderful scenic drives in the country, and all the tourist traffic that will be attracted to the Mt. Baker region will pass through Concrete.

CONCRETE SHINGLE MILL IS AGAIN IN OPERATION

The shingle mill of the Baker River Lumber company in this city resumed operations Wednesday after having been shut down for the greater part of the summer. It is understood that the mill will run only until the shingle bolts now in the river have been cut up, which will be in two or three weeks. The shingle market is still very unsettled and the price is too low for the local mill to operate at a profit owing to the excessive cost of timber.

HERBERT PRATER CUTS FOOT WHILE SWIMMING

Herbert Prater, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Prater, went up to his favorite swimming pool near the Superior clay quarry last Saturday, and as a result of that swim will hobble around on crutches for a few weeks. In jumping into the pool he landed on a broken bottle or a tin can in the bottom of the pool and cut a deep gash in his foot. His injury was dressed by Dr. Mertz, who took three stitches to close the cut.

By A. J. COLLINS

WAITING

Serene, I fold my hands and wait,
Nor care for wind, or tide, or sea;
I rave no more 'gainst Time or Fate,
For lo! My own shall come to me.
I stay my haste, I make delays,
For what avails this eager pace?
I stand amid the eternal ways,
And what is mine shall know my face.
Asleep, awake, by night or day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark astray,
Nor change the tide of destiny.
What matter if I stand alone?
I wait with joy the coming years;
My heart shall reap where it hath sown,
And garner up its fruit of tears.
The waters know their own, and draw
The brook that springs in yonder heights;
So flows the good with equal law
Unto the soul of pure delights.
The stars come nightly to the sky;
The tidal wave unto the sea;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

—John Burroughs.

WHO MUST PAY?

The net debt of the United States is about $22,000,000. More than half of that sum is accounted for by loans made to the allies to aid them in the prosecution of the war and for their rehabilitation after the armistice. There now repose in the treasury the obligations of twenty foreign governments, which in principal and accrued interest amount to more than $11,500,000,000. Whether or not that huge sum is eventually repaid is of vital interest to every taxpayer in the country.

A third of all federal expenditures—and that means a third of all federal taxes—now goes to pay the interest and reduce the principal of the national debt. With a frank acknowledgement by foreign governments of their debts to the American taxpayers, and a reasonable agreement for annual payment of the interest and an installment on the principal, about $500,000,000 per year would be taken from the amount that our taxpayers have to contribute annually to the support of their government. Great Britain and two or three smaller countries have already completed such an agreement or taken steps toward it. France intimates she will send negotiators to Washington next month. The United States is accustomed to pay its bills without quibbling. All it asks is similar treatment from its debtors.

Pittsburg republicans have flung to the breeze a banned measuring 132 by 73 feet. It contains 1,100 yards of canvas and carries the names of all republican organization candidates. "Yes, we have some ban-anners!"

When you notice how eager and anxious, and almost daffy, women are over bargain counter sales, you can figure out how some of us get grabbed up as husbands.

* * *

We read in the city paper some time ago of a woman wearing twelve diamond rings on one hand. She ought to wear a band around her head, also, to keep to crack from widening.

* * *

An agricultural paper asks if there is any way to prevent bees from stinging while you are robbing their hive. Certainly. Let the hired man do it, while you take a constitutional walk.

Yes, it is a cold world, if you want to look at it that way, but it may be warm enough for you in the next world. There is always something to look forward to.

Our neighbor got a new machine,
Just the other day;
He says it uses gasoline,
And not alfalfa hay.

Even after the meek have inherited the earth some blustering trusat official will come around and collect the rent.

We read that bustles are coming back. Woman is constantly enlarging her sphere. If it isn't one way it's another.

The more we study the statutes the more we become in favor of enforcing all the laws, against everybody but ourselves.

There are four hundred billions of people on this earth and none of them will loan a fellow some money. It was ever thus.

A geologist, says a scientific paper, thinks nothing of a thousand years. He'd be a bad one to lend money to.
