High Lakes And Streams Open This Sunday

The first opening of fishing season last month proved rather a flop for most anglers, so hopes are high for this Sunday when the balance of the streams and lakes in the valley will be open.

Favorite spot, of course, will be Grandy Lake, where fishermen from all parts of the state will flock for the usual opening day party. Some will catch fish, some just "party" but all will have a big time initiating the 1955 season into full swing.

Hopes were raised for another good season on Lake Shannon last week end when several limited at Thunder Creek and the boom. The experts say warmer weather is the secret.

Bands To Play Spring Concert

Tomorrow night (Friday) will be the night music lovers have been waiting for since the recent band contest in Bellingham. Tomorrow night they will hear the high school concert band that won top place in the contest, and also hear the junior band of Director Sobek.

Ken's Kolumn

—REPORTING FOR C.H.S.

By Ken Robertson

Election-Fever Takes Over

The furor of student body elections is taking a grip on Concrete High with the first signs of posters springing up on the Bulletin boards, secret strategy-planning meetings being held, campaign-fever setting in and shirts and blouses sporting bright cards with "Vote For Henry, Bill, Sue and anybody else who's running."

Nominations were opened last Friday and the following candidates are now running for office: ASB president—Ken Coone, Dean Hurn and Murray Johnstone; vice president—Loyal Kloes, Dick Rathvon, Sid Shelver and Nancy Thompson; secretary—Sharon King and Arlene Richins and assistant treasurer—Janet Barbeau and Elaine Johnson.

The climax of the campaign will be struck next week as the campaign assembly, the final blow of the fight for votes, is held. Here the people who nominated candidates must make speeches for them and try-outs for song and yell leaders will be held. Wednesday will decide the offices with the casting of ballots in the general election. Song leaders and yell leaders will be voted on individually and not in teams as previously.

Six Years Of Concerts

Tomorrow night is the annual Spring Concert and the last one for all senior members of the band. A variety of numbers will be played but the trend is toward modern, and popular swing and Latin-American numbers. Some of the outstanding pieces of the concert will be a beautiful number by Franz Lehar, Villia, a real hep modern version of "Little Bop Riding Hood" two pieces played in the contest; three marches—Waltonian, lively and American; Great Little Army, melodic and British; and God Bless America, one of the most stirring and beautiful arrangements of a popular patriotic song.

Two soloists, Anne Roundy and Sharon Smith will also give performances of their two numbers, Piping Faun and Beautiful Colorado on the flute and saxophone.

This will be the sixth spring concert—six years at Concrete for Mr. Sobek and six years of improvment in music in not only Concrete but the whole Skagit Valley, for the Concrete band, since Mr. Sobeck came has set the pace for the larger schools to aim at, which is quite apparent at every contest.

There will be many seniors Friday night who will be remembering their four, five and even six years of instruction under their band leader and all that being part of the band means to them. For it has not only been a lesson in music but a lesson in learning to live, and following the right road under the leadership of the right man.

Those are some of the things we'll be thinking of when we present our sixth annual Spring Concert tomorrow night at 8:00 in the high school gym.

Season Ends Today

Tonight will end up the 1955 baseball season as the Lion nine under the coaching of Tag Christensen, meets Sedro-Woolley on the home field.

So far the Lions have a record of two wins and seven losses. Last Friday night Anacortes took the fifth game to go into the Concrete loss ledger by a narrow margin of 2-1. The Lions made their first and only run in the first and Anacortes took over from there making one in the first and one in the third.

Monday night on the Memorial field the Lions met the Mount Vernon Bulldogs for the second time this season and were downed 8-1. The lone Concrete run came in the sixth. Mount Vernon scored once in the first, once in the second, three times in the sixth and three times in the seventh.

As the Lions meet Sedro tonight they will have the consolation of knowing that they defeated the Cubs once before, 6-5 in one of the most thrilling games of the season for the Lions.

Bob Larsen Hurt By Log In Woods Accident

Bob Larsen of Birdsview was severely crushed in a logging accident on Burpee Hill Wednesday morning when he was struck by a rolling log. He was brought here for first aid and then taken to the hospital by ambulance.

X-rays showed no serious broken bones, but severe concussion of the skull was evident and he suffered several broken ribs. Reports today were that he was conscious and seemingly getting along well.

Sumner Hockett of Sauk was hobbling around this week on two crutches, trying to get used to a broken leg, suffered in an accident.

LOCAL MAN JAILED OVER KNIFING FIGHT

A rough-house battle outside a Hamilton tavern Saturday night ended with a Concrete resident in jail for a knifing, his wife in the hospital with a broken hip, and a third party nursing a cut on his throat that just missed gashing his jugular vein.

Sam Green of this city, was the man arrested. Witnessed reported that he had started beating his wife outside the tavern when Richard Sanders of Hamilton interferred. He knocked Green down and went back into the tavern, where it was found that he had suffered a bad cut on his neck in the fight.

He and Mrs. Green were both taken to the hospital. Sanders was released after treatment, but Mrs. Green was found to have suffered a broken hip from the rough treatment of her husband.

Green was being held without bail pending investigation of the case.

Lee Strong Last Rites In Seattle

Lee Strong, long-time resident of this community, died last Thursday May 5th at Harborview Hospital in Seattle of pneumonia after a short illness. Mr. Strong had been residing in Seattle for the past 10 years, but had lived in Concrete since 1918 before that time and had considered this his home.

LeRoy Wilson Strong was born in Illinois in 1869. He met and married Cora May Woodford at Shell Lake, Wisconsin in 1901 and they came to Washington the following year. They first settled in Sedro-Woolley and there raised a family of five sons and a daughter. They moved their family to Concrete in 1918. Mr. Strong was employed at the cement plant here for a number of years.

Surviving are his wife, Cora; four sons—Russell C., Norval L, and Roy W. of Seattle and Donald R. of this city; and daughter, Norma Jacobsen of Seattle. One son, Glenn D, died in 1934. There are fifteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Mr. Strong would have celebrated his 54th wedding anniversary the 20th of July.

Funeral services were held at the White Center Funeral Home in Seattle Saturday and burial was made at Washington Memorial Park.

One of the important parts of the business session will be the installation of new officers. The newly elected officers are Mrs. George Day, president; Mrs. Donald Ross, vice-president; Mrs. Alfred Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Warren Clay, treasurer.

ANOTHER CONTRACT FOR CITY LIGHT

The firm of Buchanan, Sather & DeRycke was the low bidder on a $49,038.52 job at City Light on the upper Skagit last week end. The work will include installation of a turbine and auxiliary equipment at Ross Dam powerhouse; construction of a small bridge; raising of the tail race bridge at Diablo Dam; alterations of the railroad-car lift and changes at a car-barge landing at Diablo; construction of an access road at Ross Dam; and the building of a tennis court.

The Marblemount Orthopedic Auxiliary held its monthly meeting on Monday, May 2nd at the home of Mrs. Wm. Graham. The president, Mrs. Graham, opened the meeting with secretary Mrs. E. Witham reading the minutes. Many interesting items were discussed and new officrs were elected for the coming year.

The new officers are: Mrs. Jessie Wenrich, president; Mrs. Neil Clark, vice president; Mrs. Edwyn Witham, secretary; Mrs. Schoonover, treasurer.

The next meeting will be held in August.

Hot Protest To Council

The town councilmen had a busy time last Thursday night, taking care of regular business and handling a large delegation of visitors from Superior avenue, who were there to protest the dust from the heavy logging traffic on that street.

The session got off to a good start with the protests loud and long against the dust and for a complete cement paving job of the avenue from the top of the hill to the school. When it was asked by the council how many of those present would be willing to sign up for a L. I. D. bond issue to pave the street it was found that only six of the group of some twenty in the delegation were property owners.

Street commissioner McGovern finally got the floor to say that the town would be unable to pave the street without a special bond issue and that as all past attempts to hold an oil coat on the hill had failed, the only solution would be to re-route the traffic.

A truck route has been proposed from Grandy Lake to Birdsview by the Booster Club, and this was seized upon as a logical solution. A committee from the council and the delegation will call on the county commissioners to find out how much progress has been made on the proposed route.

Question Building Code

Lowell Peterson, who recently erected a new oil distributing plant here, was also present to battle it out with the council over a purported failure to observe the letter of his building permit. The council was of the opinion that a certain building code had been specified in his building permit, requiring him to build a retaining wall around his storage tanks. His stand was that he agreed to build the wall if lack of it raised insurance rates.

The code could not be found and the minutes showed no mention of a code book number, so the matter was dropped without action.

Also of argumentive nature was a letter received from the state attorney general in regard to a bill paid by a previous council for prisoner's meals that had been protested by the state auditor. The present council is ordered to recover the amount and return it to the treasury.

The questioned bill was for four steak dinners, not considered proper because at the time there did not appear to have been any prisoners booked in the town jail.

Kids Must Repay All Damages On Vandalism

An 18-year old who plead guilty to shooting up the county grader on the Baker Lake road recently, was fined $100 Monday in the court of Judge Clyde Fowler of Mount Vernon, and will have to pay damages to the county for his destructive spree. His 17-year old companion appeared in juvenile court and will lose the rifle, as well as having to pay his share of the damage.

In the other vandalism case in which windows were broken from a home at Van Horn, the two young men confessing the job were taken into juvenile court and ordered to earn and pay cost of replacing all the glass broken out.

School Notes

by Joyce Scales and Shirley Joy

The boys are also looking forward to their first home game on Monday. Their opponents are the fierce Sedro-Woolley team.

Politicians moan over te lack of respect shown anyone who seeks public office. At the same time they openly plan for months in advance the methods they will use to destroy the character and whatever good that might be in the record of the opposition candicandidate. The sad part of it is that the voters seeming accept such tactics as part of the game and often vote for the party doing the best job of character assassination. Politicos are right about lack of respect, however, and are totally responsible themselves.

Now that the government has finally blown up its model city with an atomic bomb they will probably learn a lot about what can withstand such a threat. If they can't save the property, the next step would be to preserve the property owner who would have the task of rebuilding and resuming tax payments.

The P. T. A. squabble over parenthood of a school child as a qualification for office in the top brackets doesn't hit the small community. Here the qualification is almost automatic and the big problem is finding someone willing to give the time required from an office holder.

It always seems that when a delegation waits on a public body by the time the misconceptions are ironed out of the proceedings, there is little of the problem remaining to be solved.

It is with surprise that dairymen find milk can be dispensed with vending machines. Why not, cows have been using the basic patent for years.

Whenever we see a crew of men working these days we note the growing use of the "buddy" system. One guy working, one watching.

You can fish anywhere after Sunday, thereby expanding the long list of places where a fisherman can have his usual bum luck.

Lamps For Darkened Rooms

You can end "bulb-snatching" in your home in just a moment's stop at the display pictured above. Light globes of all sizes, single or in cartons. The smart home owner usually selects a carton of each of the more popular wattages and has them on hand when needed.

For special purpose lamps, this is also the place to look before dashing off a letter to the manufacturer of your appliance to find out where you can get that oven light, refrigerator globe or special lamp globe. We have an unusually large variety of these special size, special purpose lights.

Next on the list would be the flood lights, the spot lights, the flouresçent tubes and other items that come under the heading of lighting. We have them all in most cases, and can get anything that is made. No need to leave any fixture dark because of lack of the correct globe.
