VOL. XX CONCRETE, SKAGIT COUNTY, WASHINGTON, SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1921 NUMBER 32

STATE CONFERENCE ON HIGH TAXATION BRINGS NO RESULTS

ALL AGREE THAT EXPENSES SHOULD BE REDUCED BUT WANT THE OTHER FELLOW TO DO THE REDUCING.

The state-wide conference called by Gov. Hart to consider ways and means of reducing expenditures, and thus reduce tax levies, met in Olympia Monday. Tax levying officials from every part of the state were in attendance, the meeting being much larger than anticipated. County, city and school officials who went to Olympia for the purpose of getting a working program that would result in reduced taxes went home no wiser than when they started. Many speeches were made and the opinion appeared unanimous that taxes were too high and should be reduced, but each speaker thought that some other official or department should be the one to reduce expenses. The great American game of "passing the buck" was the pastime of the session, and when adjournment was taken nothing had been accomplished.

One motion appears to have been passed, to the effect that expenses be reduced by cutting down the salaries or wages of school teachers and subordinate officials and employees of counties, cities and school districts. Nothing seems to have been said about eliminating the army of needless salary-grabbers about the state capitol, nor about reducing the salaries of any of the highly paid state officials. Although under the new administrative code the salaries of a majority of the appointive officials of the state are fixed by the governor, and directors and supervisors are now drawing salaries of $6,000 or more per year for doing the same work that had heretofore been done efficiently by a $3,000 a year commissioner, it does not seem that anyone called the governor's attention to the fact that he could easily start the salary reduction plan by doing some pruning in his official family.

The tax conference ended just as every thinking person thought it would end—in doing nothing. Taxes are too high, and they will remain too high until officials are elected who will attend to municipal business in a business way and stop playing politics and "passing the buck."

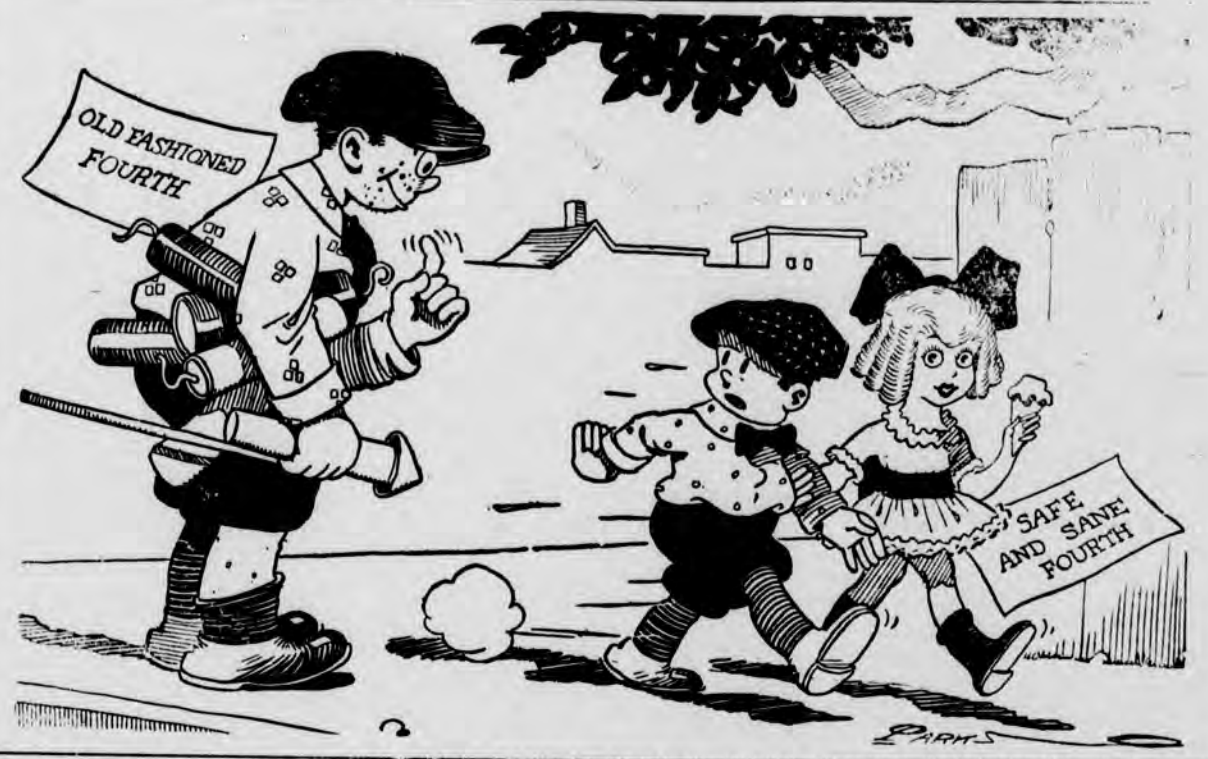

POPULAR ROCKPORT GIRL WAS MARRIED LAST WEEK

Miss Kathryn Martin, of Rockport, a popular young lady of the upper valley, and George M. Brink, of Hamilton, who is associated with H. C. Swettenam in the Hamilton garage, were married at the Catholic church in Sedro-Woolley Friday afternoon of last week by Rev. Father Noonan, with only immediate relatives present. The bride's brother and niece, Fred Martin, of Rockport, and Ruth Pressentin, of Marblemount. The bride wore a suit of blue tulle with hat to match and a corsage bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. She is a graduate of the Whatcom high school and took training as a nurse at St. Joseph's hospital in Bellingham. She is a sister of Mrs. H. C. Swettenam. Mr. Brink came to Hamilton from Anacortes to engage in business with Mr. Swettenam, and both young people have many friends to wish them happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Brink left immediately after the ceremony for Everett and will spend their honeymoon there and on Whidby island.

"I WOULD IF I COULD BUT I CAN'T"

BIG PHOTOPLAY FEATURE IS COMING NEXT TUESDAY

The biggest photoplay feature to be shown at the Concrete theatre during the coming week comes next Tuesday night, when William Farnum is shown in "If I Were King," a screen adaptation of Justin McCarthy's famous novel of the same name. This is a massive production with plenty of action. The stage settings are unusually beautiful and the acting is above the average. The story is laid in the times of Louis XI of France, and much of the action takes place in the court of that monarch. The fifteenth episode of "The King of the Circus" completes the program.

Tonight brings a strictly comedy program. First there will be five reels of Mack Sennett comedy, entitled "Married Life," after which a Tooner-ville comedy, "The Skipper's Treasure Garden," will finish out the evening. Both were produced solely for laughing purposes. Tomorrow night Mildred Harris Chaplin will be featured in "Polly of the Storm Country," a rural drama that will be found interesting. Thursday night Jack Pickford comes in "Just Out of College," one of George Ade's delightful comedy-dramas. The story is one that is well suited to Pickford's style, and the picture will be found entertaining by all.

Next Saturday Norma Talmadge comes in "Yes or No," a strong drama of the eternal triangle in which the star plays a dual role. Next Sunday pretty Anita Stewart appears in "A Midnight Romance," a pleasing story of love and mystery.

CARLSON HAS CLOSE CALL IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Edwin Carlson and his three passengers had a very narrow escape from serious injury or death Sunday evening when his car was wrecked near Birdsview. Carlson was returning from a trip to Hamilton, and had Earl Osborn, Gordon McGovern and Buddy Bidont riding with him. In rounding the sharp curve near Birdsview his car skidded into a telephone pole and was wrecked. No one was injured with the exception of a few slight bruises, but the car lost both rear wheels, running board and fender, and was considerably smashed up other-wise. The four men were picked up by other autos and given a ride home, the car being brought home Monday by the Lisherness service car. All consider they had a lucky escape.

TWO SEDRO-WOOLLEY MEN DIE OF HEART FAILURE

Two well-known residents of Sedro-Woolley died suddenly of heart failure during the past week. Alonzo Long, a farmer residing near the city limits, died Friday of last week while doing his evening chores. He was 67 years of age. Charles Southards, age 51, died Saturday evening in Seattle, where he had gone for medical treatment. He is survived by his wife and one young child.

LOCAL EAGLES RETURN FROM TRIP TO ABERDEEN

The members of the localerie of Eagles and the Eagles Concert band who participated in the doings of the state convention of the F. O. E. in Aberdeen the first of the week returned home during the last few days with a story of an enjoyable trip. Among the last ones to return were Richard Thompson and L. E. Wolfe who stayed over in Olympia for a day on their way home. The Concrete band made a good showing in Aberdeen and received considerable praise for its work, but failed to carry away any prizes. However, the boys consider the experience well worth while, and are hoping for better luck next time. L. E. Wolfe of this city was named deputy grand president for this district. He will be the personal representative of the grand president in the district, which comprises all of Eastern Washington and all of Western Washington north of Seattle. It is an important position and the Judge deserves the honor conferred upon him. The 1923 state convention will be held in Bellingham next June.

NEW MEMBERS OF ELKS PRESENTED WITH TEETH

Four of the new Elks of this city who were initiated into the order last week, are puzzling over a mysterious donation they received through the mail a few days after their initiation. The four who were remembered were Geo. E. Dickinson, John R. Whitehair, S. A. Evensen and Ross Zongrone. Each received a letter containing what was alleged to be "a real elk's tooth," the accompanying note further claiming that it was very valuable as it had been extracted from the jaws of one of the oldest bull elks of the Skagit valley. Experts who have examined the teeth say that indications are that they were extracted at some slaughter house and that they were never near an elk. It is reported that a reward of a quart of Skagit valley moonshine has been offered for information leading to the identity of the person who made the anonymous donation, but this has not been verified.

TOURIST CAMPING PARK IS OPENED AT LACONNER

The LaConner city park, known as Pioneer park, has been fitted up for the convenience of automobile parties and campers, and is now one of the most attractive camping places on the upper Sound. Brick ovens have been installed, water mains laid and taps placed at convenient places for drinking and cooking purposes, and swings and other outdoor paraphernalia put in to provide pleasure for the children. A speaker's stand has been erected to be in readiness for the meeting of the Skagit County Pioneers' association in August. The people of LaConner promise ample provision for all tourists, whether for a day or camping out for a week or more.

ANACORTES TO HOLD BIG CELEBRATION ON FOURTH

Anacortes is going to celebrate the Fourth of July this year, and plans are being made to make it the biggest affair of the kind ever pulled off in the county. The main arrangements for the celebration are being made by the Anacortes Elks, and they are thinking up new forms of entertainment each day. The celebration will last for three days, July 2, 3 and 4. Among the many attractions offered are Indian canoe races with 14 tribes represented, the Declaration of Independence dramatized, concerts by the Elks band, indoor and pavement dancing, baseball games and a review of a division of Uncle Sam's destroyers. A street carnival will also be in full swing for the three days. There are plenty of camping grounds and bathing beaches near Anacortes, and these are expected to help attract crowds to the celebration.

HAMILTON YOUNG PEOPLE ARE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Hazel Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Freeman, and Sidney H. Cathey, both well known young people of Hamilton, were united in marriage last Saturday evening at the parsonage in Hamilton, with Rev. A. C. Baer officiating at the ceremony. Using the impressive ring service of the Methodist church. The bride was lovely in a dainty gown of white organdie and carried roses. She graduated a few weeks ago from the four-year course in the Hamilton high school and was married in the same dress which she wore at graduation. Mr. Cathey is a veteran of the World war. He served abroad with the 32nd division about eight months and saw active service at Verdun and in the Argonne forest. The young couple were attended during the ceremony by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Larson. Mr. and Mrs. Cathey began house-keeping immediately in the cottage near the Hamilton mill which they recently purchased and furnished ready for occupancy.

CARRIER PIGEON CAUGHT AT PUGET SOUND CAMP

A fine carrier pigeon that had apparently lost its way while on a flight home was caught near the Puget Sound camp yesterday morning by Creed Noah, who is running a small pole camp. While feeding his horses Mr. Noah noticed the pigeon feeding around the barn and managed to catch it with very little trouble. The bird wore a leg band inscribed "Seattle 761," but carried no message. The pigeon is undoubtedly owned in Seattle, and there were many theories advanced as to how it happened to light here. The general opinion is that it was entirely lost, but some think that it was released at the power camp on the upper Skagit and stopped here for a rest. Mr. Noah will hold the bird until he hears from the owner.

DRAINAGE PROJECT IN LOWER VALLEY IS BIGGEST IN COUNTY

WILL RECLAIM 15,000 ACRES OF LOW LANDS WEST OF BURLINGTON—WILL COST THREE-QUARTERS OF A MILLION.

After being four years in process of formation, the biggest drainage projects ever planned in Skagit county, and one of the biggest on the Pacific coast, is now rapidly taking shape, and the first hearing on the project will be held before the board of county commissioners early in July. More than 15,000 acres of rich farm lands are included in the area to be drained, and the work of constructing the main and lateral ditches, building dams and out flow gates, with the necessary machinery, will require an expenditure of more than $750,000. It is estimated that the land within the district will be assessed between $45 and $50 per acre to pay for the improvement. Damages to be allowed for land taken for right of way for dikes, dams and other necessary items are expected to be exceptionally large.

The main ditch will start west of Burlington, near the hill on the Knutzen farm, and run southerly through the lands of the Conner Land company to North Avon. From there it runs westerly through the low lands near Fredonia and on to empty into the slough at Whitney. When completed thousands of acres of what is now practically waste land will be reclaimed and made highly productive. It is estimated that it will take several years to finish the work. Practically every person who owns land within the area of the drainage district is in favor of the improvement, and at this time it seems certain that the district will be officially organized and work started within a few months. John Meehan, former county engineer, is in charge of the engineering work on the project and will likely be in charge of construction.

BAPTIST LADIES' AID TO HOLD MEETING TUESDAY

A regular business session of the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church will be held at the church Tuesday afternoon, June 28, with Mrs. A. Fred Carlson and Mrs. W. H. Biggerstaff as hostesses. Full attendance requested. Tuesday evening the young folks of the church will give an outdoor social on the church grounds. Outdoor games will be played and refreshments served.

SKAGIT COUNTY W. C. T. U. HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. of Skagit county was held in Anacortes last week with 65 delegates in attendance, each of the 22 unions in the county being represented. Addresses were made by state and national officers of the union and by several county officials. All officers were re-elected for another year, being: President, Harriet B. Dunlap, Mount Vernon; vice president, Lottie Sahlbom, Burlington; secretary, Marie Bettner, Anacortes; treasurer, Ina E. Williams, Burlington.

PERMITS MUST BE SECURED FOR BURNING SLASHINGS

Any farmer who desires to burn slashings, or any other person who wants to start a brush or log pile fire of any kind at this season of the year, must first secure a permit from the fire warden. To start a slashing or brush fire without a permit is a serious offense and is punishable with a heavy fine or imprisonment. Bert King, fire warden for this district, announces that he will be in Concrete every Saturday-afternoon for the purpose of issuing permits, and application should be made to him at that time.

SEATTLE OFFICIALS INSPECT WORK AT SKAGIT POWER SITE

TRIP TO DECIDE WHETHER OR NOT WORK SHALL BE CONTINUED OR PROJECT DROPPED FOR SEVERAL YEARS.

A party of Seattle city officials passed through this city Tuesday on their way to the site of the city of Seattle's power project on the upper Skagit river. Included in the party were every member of the city council and all members of the board of public works, City Engineer Dimock, Chief Engineer Uhden and a number of minor officials and technical experts. They expected to spend the greater part of the week in going over the work already done and studying the plans of the engineers for work to be undertaken during the next few months, unless all work is stopped. The trip was made for the purpose of acquainting every official connected with the construction of the plant with every detail of the project, and after gathering all information possible the council and board of public works will decide whether or not the work is to be continued at this time.

The Seattle power project has been under fire in that city for several weeks, claims being made that all plans so far are indefinite and that the plant will cost more than it will be worth to the city. An organized effort is being made to get the council to drop the project entirely, or at least suspend operations until conditions are more favorable for construction work. There also appears to be a wide difference of opinion as to the character of dam to be built, and in regard to the size of the first unit. The city has already spent approximately $5,000,000 in building a railroad from Rockport to the site of the project at Gorge creek and in preliminary construction at the site. As it appears that the dropping of the project at this stage would result in the total loss of practically all the money already spent, it is not likely that work will be discontinued. The people of the upper valley are hoping that the project will be completed, as the work done by the city has been a big factor in building up the up-river communities, and a continuation of the work will result in many permanent improvements in those localities.

SEDRO-WOOLLEY MAN IS JAILED FOR CONTEMPT

Earl Heritage, of Sedro-Woolley, was sentenced this week to serve six months in the county jail for contempt of court. Heritage had been subpoenaed as a witness in the case of State vs. Thos. Stoney, and when he was wanted he could not be found, and was not located until after the case had gone to the jury. He started serving his sentence at once. The jury disagreed in regard to Stoney, who was charged with being a jointist.

CONCRETE WOMEN MAKE LONG AUTOMOBILE TRIP

Mrs. Katherine Glover and Mrs. Nellie Wheelock, of the local telephone company, and Mrs. Elmer Osborn, pulled into town last Saturday morning after a very strenuous auto trip from Sunnyside, where they had been attending the annual meeting of the Independent Telephone association. They left Sunnyside early Friday morning and made the trip to Concrete in 23 hours actual running time, without any stop for sleep. They were held up at Easton for several hours waiting for gas to take them over the pass, and a stop of a few hours was made at Yakima, where they were entertained at dinner by some of the telephone officials of that city. The total elapsed time for the trip was 29 hours. For the greater part of the trip the car carried six persons and a big camping outfit.

Rhoades, who recently moved to Hamilton with his family, will teach the sixth grade, and will probably be assigned some other classes. Mr. Rhoades is a graduate of Ames college, Iowa, and has specialized in agriculture. The school board has authorized the building of a woodshed 20x40 feet between the gymnasium and the high school, and they have done much improvement work on the athletic field. The board's fence has been moved back, making the field about 80 feet wider, and stumps have been blasted out and removed, and the field has been plowed and graded.

TOBACCO'S FOES LOSING GROUND

Canvass of 7,847 Editors Shows 7,393 Communities Against Abolishing Weed.

ANTIS LOSE THREE STATES.

Utah, Under Mormon Influence. Only Commonwealth to Adopt Prohibition Measure During Year.

"Is tobacco going to have its scalp added to the belt of the prohibitionist beside that of the lamented but as yet not altogether late alcohol?" is the question asked by Garret Smith in an article in the current issue of Leslie's Magazine.

The writer touches the question that while there has been increased agitation and legislative activity on the subject of tobacco following the success of the drive for prohibition of liquor the efforts of reformers seeking to abolish tobacco have no general support. This opinion is based on the results of the questionnaires on the subject sent out to newspaper editors of the country by the Press Service Company of New York City.

The questions asked were:

- (1) Do you favor the enactment of laws prohibiting the personal use of tobacco by adults?
- (2) In your judgment does the general sentiment of your community favor such legislation?
- (3) Is the use of tobacco personally objectionable to you?

No arguments accompanied the questions and from their form it was impossible for any editor to determine the attitude of the questioners.

Out of 12,518 editors questioned, 7,847 replied according to the summary given. These editors, it is estimated, represent a combined circulation of 21,870,040. Of the 7,847 editors replying, 7,393, or 95 per cent, represent public sentiment in their communities as opposed to anti-tobacco legislation. Only 200 editors, or 3 per cent of those replying believed there was any considerable sentiment favorable to tobacco prohibition. There were 174, or 2 per cent, in doubt, while 20 failed to record their judgment.

Editors' Judgment Unbiased

"It is of special interest to note that 563 editors in answering the first question, personally favored such legislation, although only 230 of them reported that public opinion also favored the prohibition of tobacco—an indication of the conscientious effort made by the editors to distinguish public opinion from their own personal opinions," the article continues.

"The highest percentage of replies reporting public opinion favorable to prohibition of tobacco came from Utah, where 42 per cent of the editors thought the public were for such a movement. Utah is the only state which has since adopted an anti-cigarette law. The result was forecast by several of the editors who stated that the influence of the Mormon Church was against tobacco. The Mormon Church is also strong in Idaho, which is the other state where the use of tobacco was recently prohibited, but the governor has signed the bill just passed, in which the prohibitory legislation is repealed. In this state 89 per cent of the editors estimate sentiment in their communities as against tobacco prohibition, which, nevertheless, is 6 per cent below the average reported opposition.

"The legislature of Tennessee some weeks ago passed and the governor has signed a bill repealing the anti-cigarette law of that state. The questionnaire showed 93 per cent of its editors believed the public against anti-tobacco legislation. The legislature of Arkansas has also passed a bill repealing its anti-cigarette law. In this state 94 per cent of the editors reported against tobacco prohibition.

Arizona's Practical Joke

"A bill, introduced in the current session of the legislature of Arizona to prohibit smoking in public dining rooms and other public places, was first amended to prohibit the consumption in public of peanuts, chewing gum, tea and coffee and then defeated by the senate. The questionnaire returns from that state were 92 per cent 'no'.

"In Iowa where the 'no's' were 95 per cent a bill to repeal the anti-cigarette law has been passed and signed by the governor.

"A bill to repeal the anti-cigarette law in Kansas, with 89 per cent 'no's' is receiving the attention of its legislature. Last year a petition for a referendum in Oregon to prohibit the use of tobacco failed of sufficient signatures to bring the question to a vote, and 95 per cent of the editors declare their public against legislation. In Oklahoma an anti-cigarette bill has been reported unfavorably in the house. The editors of that state reported 94 per cent against its public support.

"Outside of Utah, where Mormon influence predominates," the article concludes, "the anti-tobacco movement appears, as in the case of Tennessee, Arkansas and Iowa, to be losing ground and is not to any considerable extent supported by the people."

The friends of tobacco feel particularly elated over this showing, inasmuch as 1920-21 was a maximum year in legislative circles with 42 state legislatures in session and the tobacco subject received an unusual amount of consideration.

Concrete Roads and Safety First

You're safe on concrete—whether the surface is wet or dry, whether you are running in "high" or "low," uphill or down, on the straightaway or around a curve—the even, gritty surface of the concrete pavement makes you sure of car control.

YOU CAN DEPEND ON THE CONCRETE ROAD—No other type gives so sure a grip for your tires, with so little tractive resistance. That's just ONE reason why you see Concrete Roads everywhere. It's not a sudden impulse. It's the crystallization of public opinion formed over a long period of time.

We have a booklet which tells about many other good features of Concrete Roads and how they pay for themselves. Simply ask our nearest office to send you a copy.

WHAT THE GUARANTY FUND MEANS TO YOU

Of course the first advantage to you is the added protection and greater security which your money has when you deposit it in a bank that is a Member of the Washington Bank Depositors Guaranty Fund.

Every bank that comes within the provisions of this Fund has to pass the most rigid examination by the State Banking Department. And, among the provisions of this act it is required that a member bank must have an unimpaired surplus equal to 10 per cent of its capital, that it must be in sound financial condition and properly managed.

Through the operation of this Guaranty Fund, if a member bank by any chance fails, the State Banking Department immediately takes charge of the bank and pays off all depositors in full.

The enormous strength of this Guaranty Fund is shown by the fact that upwards of Sixty Million Dollars represents the resources of the banks now making up the membership of the Guaranty Fund. To sum it up in a few words, the Guaranty Fund is another of the great co-operative movements that are growing up in all circles of business for the protection and safeguarding of the customers—it is significant that so many of the banks of the State of Washington (noted for its rigid banking laws) are members of this Fund.
