THIS & THAT

BY H. L. D.

We walked up to Capitol Hill on day this week to see what all the noise was about and found the road construction crew busy cutting down the hill to make the turn on to the street by Sonny's garage. A grader, a big bulldozer and three caryalls were working busily, and we were surprised to see Babe Biggerstaff on the grader and Ray Hollingsworth on the cat. Both are former upper valley residents, now living down below.

Had a lot of things to write about this week, but just couldn't make it, so Hermie is helping out on the balance of this column . . . .

Returns Home From Convention

Mrs. Joe Finden returned on Sunday evening from a wonderful two week's trip to the Lutheran Women's Missionary Federation Convention in Minneapolis. There were 3000 women in attendance from the entire nation. She says the weather there was fine but she didn't care for the hot nights. The meetings were held in Minneapolis Auditorium which has the second largest organ in the world, and the music was wonderful.

A few highlights of the convention Mrs. Finden especially enjoyed were; singing by 150 voices of the Choral Union, Bible study conducted by Emily Werner of the Bible Seminary in New York, a talk by Dr. Boyd, professor in Old Testament at the Lutheran Theological Seminary and singing by Betty Severson, a blind teacher of Gary, South Dakota.

On her way home Mrs. Finden stopped off at Butte, Montana, to visit her mother. There at the same time was her brother from Washington, D. C. whom she hadn't seen for eight years. Altogether it was a wonderful trip but Joe and the youngsters are mighty glad to have their wandering mama home again.

Mr. Sams, Gwen Macklin's brother, was shipped out to Okinawa on May 22, and reports that it is so hot there that he has already lost ten of his three hundred plus pounds. His wife, a Japanese girl, spent a few days here early this week visiting at the Macklin home. She returned home on Tuesday to appear before the naturalization board to get her citizenship papers.

Following the last meeting a lovely lunch was served by Ruth Elkins, Harriete Robinson and Nellie Pulice.

Instead of the usual hamburger stand the Auxiliary will serve pie, do-nuts and coffee during the Eagles celebration this month.

There has been no change in the Auxiliary meeting dates.

DRAKE TO INSTALL NEW EQUIPMENT AT MILL

Superior Shake Mill, operated by Ray Drake at Grasmere, will take on a new look this summer. He is planning to erect a 40 by 80 foot building to house two new band saws, a swing cut-off and a log slip. Also a drying shed 40 by 60 feet with a dry kiln to be installed in it at some future date.

The mill now employs from fifteen to eighteen men on two shifts, depending on the market demand for cedar shakes.

Drake is also adding a railroad spur for box car loading of the bundled shakes that go mostly to California markets, but are sold all over the nation. He reports that there is a big demand right now from Denver for the hand-split tapers—the most rustic looking of the various type shakes.

Double Wedding Set For New Church Aug. 4

The Community Bible Church in Concrete is scheduled for a double wedding ceremony for Saturday, August 4th, at which time the two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Thompson of Marblemount will share the occasion as they wed two young men of their choice.

Following the ceremony in the new church, a reception will be held in the church basement.

Trucks Collide Trying To Miss Auto On Log Road

Heavy traffic on the Baker Lake road claimed a couple more logging trucks last Friday morning when Bob Vaara and Dale Roo met head on in a collision while trying to avoid a private car.

The accident occured on the Sulphur Creek road, tributary to the main highway. The truck drivers missed the car and neither were injured, but the trucks were badly bruised up. In fact, it took some cutting to get them apart.

Girls Turn Lobbyists

The two girls who represented Concrete at Girl's State this year came home with a glowing report of the fun they had. Bette Crinklaw made a unsuccessful campaign for Superior Court Judge on the non-partisan ticket and Sharon King was a candidate for state senator for the Tory party.

Failing election, they turned lobbyists to get various measures introduced and passed by the legislature. They also played in the Girl's State band.

Over 350 high school girls from all parts of the state took part in the week-long school on government.

EAGLES AUXILIARY

Helland-D'Amico Rites In Beautiful Setting Last Saturday Evening

The first wedding to be held in the new Community Bible Church was a lovely affair. It united in marriage two local young people, Miss Janet Helland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Helland, and Sammy D'Amico, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy D'Amico. Rev. Richard Riffle officiated at the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock Saturday evening, June 30th.

The church was beautifully decorated with three candelabra with white tapers and ribbons, flanked by baskets of pink gladioli serving as a background for the ceremony.

Mrs. Ralph Wiggington played the piano before and during the ceremony and accompanied Sidney Shelver as he sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Serving as ushers and lighting the tapers were Knox Phillips and Robert Sullivan.

The bride was dressed in a lovely waltz-length gown of white nylon lace and pleated net over net and taffeta, topped with a three-quarter length sleeved bolero. Her veil was three-quarter length, attatched to a tiara of seed pearls. Her accessories were white satin slippers and dainty nylon net half mitts, and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid, surrounded by tiny pink rosebuds, with streamers of white ribbon and pink rosebuds.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Tommy Hooper, who wore a waltz-length strapless gown of pink and white nylon over taffeta, with a pink net stole, and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

Little Marilou Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wright, was flower girl and carried a basket of pink rose petals, which she scattered before the bride as she came down the aisle on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The best man was Tommy Hooper.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Helland chose a two-piece suit dress of silvery blue with white accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Guy D'Amico was dressed in a sheer gown of pink lace and a pink and white stole, and her corsage was also of orchids.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Eagles hall. Coffee and sandwiches were served from a lace-covered reception table centered with a lovely flower arrangement of pink sweet peas and pink and white daisies, flanked by tall pink and white tapers. Pouring were Mrs. Tom Wright and Mrs. Joe D'Amico.

Another table held a lovely three-tiered bride's cake, topped with a bride and groom, with Mrs. Ora Brown and Mrs. Wilma Donohue serving.

Mrs. Dale Bechtel presided at the punch bowl. Brenda Pyeatte and Sandra King were in charge of the guest book. Tiny bags of rice tied in pink net with pink and white ribbons were passed out by little Ellen Wright.

For her going-away suit, the bride chose one of medium blue, with lighter blue accessories and word the orchid which had centered her bridal bouquet.

Both young folks are well known here. Janet was born in Grantsburg, Wisconsin, but has lived here for the past several years, graduating this spring from Concrete high school.

Sammy was born here, was graduated from C. H. S. in 1952, served three years with the Marines, and is now employed as mechanic by the Scott Paper Co.

After a week's honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, they will make their home here and will be living in the McKinney house in Mill addition.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joe D'Amico of Oak Harbor, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bechtel of Kirkland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Donohue of Grantsburg, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Donohue of Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pyeatt and Brenda of Bellington and John Nichoni of Skykomish.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. Engel of the Calvary Baptist Church.

The altar was the fireplace, beautifully decorated with white peonies, hawthorne and orange blossoms.

Lighting the candles were Lynda Martin and Dixie Wiles, neices of the groom. Cherie Miller sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly." Attendants for the young couple were Mrs. Jess Martin and Donald Hilsinger, sister and brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. Mrs. Burl Wiles cut the cake and Mrs. Robert Miller poured.

Swim Class And Open Pool Starts On Monday

The swimming pool at the high school will open next Monday, July 9th for the annual summer recreation program. Kids will be able to enter the pool at 1:00, and for the balance of the schedule the pool will be open daily with regular swim periods and classes.

Ilo Sande of Mount Vernon will be the swimming instructor this year, with Kathleen Boulton as the attendant.

A bus schedule is being worked out so that a regular school bus will leave Marblemount at 12:15 and pick up the Rockport youngsters on the way. Busses from the Birdsview and South Sauk area will run on Wednesdays and Fridays.

To help defray the costs of operating the pool, small charges will be made, or the swimmers can purchase season tickets. Admission is set at 15c for grade school children, 20c for high school and 25c for adults. Season tickets run from $3.50 to $5.00 for the eight-week period.

Funeral Today For Chas. Coonc

Final rites for Charley Coonc of Sauk, who passed away at the Memorial hospital last Friday after a long illness, were held today from the St. Catherine's Catholic Church here. Mr. Coonc had suffered a stroke some weeks ago and had been slowly sinking since that time.

Mr. Coonc had been a resident of the valley for the past 32 years, during which time he became well known and well liked by everyone on the Skagit. He made his home on a farm at Sauk, which he operated for many years until he was forced to quit the heavy work.

He was born September 12, 1877 in Columbus, Nebraska.

Mr. Coonc is survived by his wife, Verna; a son, Frank Coonc of Concrete; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Fry of Spokane; a step-daughter, Mrs. Ilene Simmons of Norwalk, California; and a step-son, Jimmy Wallace of Sauk. There are also eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Neighbors and old friends from all parts of the valley gathered at the church this morning to pay their last respects. Burial was made in the Grasmere cemetery.

StanBrown To Leave

A thunderbolt struck the young folks of the community this week, and also upset a lot of the older people, when Stan Brown, popular 8th grade teacher at the Concrete grade school, announced that he would not return to his classes here in the fall.

Stan has accepted a position in the Sedro-Woolley school system as coach and athletic supervisor, with just part time at teaching. He feels the move is an advantage due to the increased opportunity for advancement in the larger system.

While still undecided as to accepting, Mrs. Brown has also been offered a teaching position in the Sedro-Woolley grade school.

Mr. Brown has been a member of the local grade school faculty for the past seven years and has taken more than ordinary interest in the youngsters, both in school and out. The result has been that he has built such a wide circle of friends that he has delayed leaving for the better opportunities of a larger school for the past two years. He stated that it wasn't that he wanted to leave, but that he just could not afford to remain.

A former president of the Lions Club, Stan has been active in all civic activities, in the Boy Scout and School Patrol work and interested in the community as a whole.

Most parents know him as the most quoted personality in school, his pupils usually starting every conversation with "Mr. Brown says . . . "

Mr. Brown now says he is leaving us. We're all sorry to hear that.

Win Prizes In Fourth Of July Parade At Sedro

The Concrete Eagles beautiful float came in for more honors on July 4th, when it won second prize for the entire parade at the Sedro-Woolley Loggerodeo.

The Grand Sweepstakes award went to Walt Van DeGrift on his unusual display of nine truck loads of huge logs. The entry drew oh's and ah's from even the most blase of timbermen.

The clown band, of which Reno Hoy is a member, won second in the musical division.

Charles Bagnell was taken to the hospital for medical care this week.

Hermie Hollister Reports—

Boys Finally Get Hargus Hoover Out Of His Cage

Mr. Hoover Out Of Cubbyhole

Wonderful things are happening at the Hoover Food Center. Most wonderful of all, after 32 years, Mr. Hoover's has finally been sprung from his cage and his boys had to help him out of it.

As Mr. White says, it takes young blood to get things done and the Hoover boys are really going to town. Much of the old display racks and shelving have been replaced by new, but it will be a long time before all the plans are carried out.

We wish the new storekeepers the best of luck, but will miss seeing Mrs. Davies and Mr. White at the old stand. It just won't seem right not to find them there.

Among local people going to Darrington for the Timber Bowl celebration on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stone, Leon, Orville and Ardith Hockett, Carol Ann Rohweder, Bill and Jack Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sallberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stone gave a birthday dinner on Sunday honoring their daughter, June. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Trueman of Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stone and daughter and the honored guest. June has returned to Everett after a three-week vacation to continue her training in nursing.

The next meeting of the Missionary Fellowship of the Community Bible Church will be a work day, starting at 10:00 o'clock on Wednesday, July 11th. Members are to bring sack lunches and coffee will be served by the hostesses, Mrs. George Ely and Mrs. Lloyd Seabury. Mrs. C. E. Jensen will have charge of devotions. Members are to bring used Christmas cards, paste and scissors.

Houseguests over the week end at the Richard Riffle home were Pastor and Mrs. Victor Stouffer and daughter of Sherman, New York. They were former classmates of the Riffles at Bible school.

Mr. and Mrs. George Nims went to Seattle Sunday to get Bonnie Nims, who has come from Arcata, California, to spend part of her vacation with her father and family.

On Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crane and son stopped off here to spend the night with the Keith Hickses and to pick up Mary Beth, who will accompany them on their vacation trip to visit relatives in British Columbia, Spokane, Coulee Dam and Wenatchee.

Calvin Hollingsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sallberg, returned home from the Memorial hospital in Sedro-Woolley Saturday. His leg is now in a cast and he is getting around on crutches.

Lee Schroeder of Koma Kulshan spent a few days early this week at the Memorial hospital in Sedro-Woolley for medical care.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Hockett and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ellison and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Leo Sallberg home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carroll went to Sedro-Woolley Wednesday to take in the celebration.

The 4th over and done, now we have to get down to the business of putting on our own celebration, revived this year by the 50th anniversary of the Concrete Eagles Lodge. Here is an event that deserves more than just a passing glance. When a lodge such as the Eagles completes a half-century of service in a community, they deserve the whole-hearted enthusiasm of everyone in town. They are a pretty live-wire group even after fifty years and the town can well get in on the planning for a big birthday party.

We note that another attempt is going to be made to sell the insurance people on the fact that shakes and shingles are not a fire hazard for which home builders should be penalized. There is no better proof than just a peek around—some of the oldest homes in the west are still standing with shingled roofs bringing them all the way without damage. Old things sometimes are best—and you can't beat cedar for a roof.

Candidates are now lining up at the filing window with their money in their hands. Win, place or show, the voters will mark the leaders for immediate or future claiming. The rest of the pack will get a liberal education in political racing practice.

A nice, long quiet week end is now recommended for those ambitious souls who had the idea that it takes more than a fifth to get through a Fourth.

YOUR INDEPENDENT HARDWARE STORE AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU!

Most every community has its independent hardware store. In many cases, it has grown with the community from a small one-room building to a large modern business establishment. It is an institution built on a sound foundation of quality merchandise, reasonable prices, personal attention and service. Your hardware store is an important spot in your community and here's why—

Quality Merchandise . . . Independent hardware dealers depend upon quality merchandise for their repeat business. It is always their policy to satisfy their customer's demand for high-grade merchandise and for that reason, they must maintain a high standard of quality.

Reasonable prices . . . Because of their location, lower overhead and the efficient manner in which your independent hardware store operates, you can be sure that you pay only fair prices for quality goods. With their expenses at a low level, they can afford to sell at a lower margin of profit and pass on the savings to you.

Complete stock . . . Your independent hardware store does not specialize in "best sellers." They make every effort to keep a complete stock that will serve the community in the best way. You can eliminate the tiresome job of shopping in a half dozen places by patronizing your independent dealer when you need hardware.

Efficient sales attention . . . the salespeople in independent hardware stores know their hardware. That's their business and they are trained to know the stock and the advantages of each item. The courtesy, prompt attention and service received is a real pleasure.

Advice and information . . . many repair or technical problems encountered around a home are solved in independent hardware stores. They have faced hundreds of situations before and their experience and advice can save you possibly hours of unnecessary work and worry.

A friendly neighbor . . . in most cases, cusomers of independent hardware dealers know the owner of the store and salespeople employed. Likewise they know him and greet him by name. There is a friendly atmosphere which creates the utmost confidence when you buy.

Community interest . . . you will always find the independent hardware dealer a leader in any community enterprise. He knows that the people around him are responsible for his livlihood. He is conscious of the fact that a better community is a more desireable place to live and do business in. He holds an important spot in your community, in a business way and socially.

Patronize your independent hardware store.
