THIS & THAT

BY H. L. D.

The past few days the snow has been falling at the high levels and the mountains and hills ringing the valley are white and very cold looking. The first of the week it was down to the 4000 foot level and now it has crept down to about 2000 feet. On the Baker Lake road it is down to the mill and trucks coming in with their loads of logs covered with snow keep reminding us that it won't be long now until winter is really at hand.

General opinion seems to be that after such a wonderfuly warm and pleasant summer, we should take what we get and not complain. But we will forget that soon and the griping will start again. A months rain has dimmed our memories and a few mornings of breaking out through the snow to the highway and slipping and skidding in to town will soon blot it out entirely. We'll start dreaming of southern California and sunshine. We will have forgotten, also, that we tried that last spring and missed a month's beautiful weather up here while we sat out the rainy season down there. You just can't win.

Next to the weather, the most of the talk this week has been about politics and politicians and the most frequent remark was "I'll be glad when election is over and my favorite programs on TV get back on schedule." It makes you wonder whether this wonderful new medium of entertainment shouldn't be shunned by the politicians as a way of reaching the people—they are making more enenies than friends by cutting in on the average American's evening entertainment.

This week an extra large paper is filled to the brim with advertising, both local and state, for the coming election. After looking it over make up your mind to VOTE, both sides are represented, the rest is up to you.

The guest house is progressing again after a lull caused by the flu bug. Lights and heat are in and one coat of wood blend has been put on the inside to hold the natural cedar color. Chuck got the plywood down on the floor, ready for the linoleum as soon as we can get the second coat on the walls and ceiling—should have it ready for company by Thanksgiving.

Art and a friend, Lindy Lindeloff, of Edmonds were up last week end for the deer hunting, but no luck. Lindy had been over to Klikitat County the week end before and had not even seen a doe and Art was anxious to show him his old hunting ground but Lindy's luck held, he did not even get sight of one. It is odd when a month ago they were happily grazing in every field up and down the valley. We wonder what instinct it is that tells them precisely what time to head for the hills. Although the hunters don't like our attitude—we're glad they have it!

Murray Johnstone, a 1956 graduate of Concrete high, who is now attending College of Puget Sound in Tacoma, had the honor of playing in the college band for President and Mrs. Eisenhower last Friday evening. Murray, who received his training in the local school band directed by Durward Sobek, moved right in to a first chair in the CPS group.

We received word this week of the death of Ora Ray Rutherford, husband of the former Helen Green of this city. Mr. Rutherford died on October 18 at LaFayette, California following an illness of several months from cancer. He had spent the years from 1948 until 1955 in Alaska where he was manager of a cold storage company. There were no children.

Son Dies In Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Looten received a letter on October 22nd from Erfurt, Germany, that Mrs. Looten's son, Hans, had passed away in a hospital there. Besides his mother he is survived by a wife, Hilde two sons, Klaus, 8 and Hans, 5 years old. The deceased was 31 years old.

Concrete Lions Upset Favored Langley Team 19-6; Sultan Next

Concrete's homecoming game on Friday night turned out to be a rousing success in spite of the rain, cold and wind—the Lions won the game with the highly touted and undefeated Langley Falcons—and did it by the convincing score of 19 to 6.

It was Concrete's game from the opening kickoff until they ran out of steam in the final quarter and allowed Langley to score their lone touchdown. The Lions kicked off to Langley, held them and got the ball on a punt. From there a few running plays took the ball downfield from where Boury caught the Langley team completely off guard with a pass play. Two Concrete men stood alone within the 10-yard line to take the pass and score without a defender near them. The kick for extra point was good.

Langley again tried offense after the kick-off, but Rathvon intercepted a pass to stop their drive. The Lions were also stopped after a fourth-down gamble for a yard that failed by inches. By the close of the quarter Concrete was again in scoring distance after Sullivan and Rathvon had reeled off some good gains.

The second quarter found Concrete stopped on the 12 yard line, then booming back to threaten again. A trapped pass attempt put Concrete back past mid-field and a penalty sent them to the Langley 39. At that point Boury scampered around end with perfect blocking to make up all the lost yardage and set the ball down on the 20. Rathvon carried it to the 10, Pressentin to the 5 and then the end sweep again went for all the needed yardage. A penalty cancelled out a nice kick for the point.

Coming back from half time Concrete again started driving only to end with a fumble on the 19 yard line. On the next play Pressentin intercepted a pass and they were on their way again. Pressentin took the ball for a nice run that ended on the 5 yard line. Rathvon went for four more and then Pressentin was given the honor of making the score. The kick was blocked. Score 19 to 0.

The third quarter closed with the score the same. In the final period Concrete began to show signs of weariness as Langley began to gamble desperately with passes and long runs. One drive was stopped by an interception. Langley got the ball back the same way and began moving again. A pass interference penalty gave them the ball on the 23 yard line. They hit the line to the 11 and then Berquist broke loose to the 1, from where the next play netted them their lone score. Their line play for the point failed.

Encouraged by their final breakthrough Langley began pouring on the heat with an on-side kick off that gave them the ball. Two passes were knocked down, but on the next try with no receiver in sight the passer made a beautiful run that came near clearing the last Concrete defender. This was the last threat as the Lions broke thru to smear the passer at midfield and the game ended with the Lions in control of the situation.

Line Makes Difference

Most noticeable differnce Friday night was the fine performance of Concrete's line. Sharp tackling and hard blocking featured the entire contest and could be credited for both the fine showing of the Lions backfield and the poor record of the Langley ball carriers.

Rathvon's reappearance in the Lion backfield was also noticeable to everyone, with his pass defense and interceptions, a touchdown and some nice ball carrying. Pressentin, Sullivan and Boury seemed to pick up confidence from his return, as all sparkled during the game.

At Sultan Friday

This week end the game is at Sultan and the team is in great shape and spirits. They will journey to the game armed with a full squad—and last year's Sultan coach Dick Armstrong, on their side of the field.

The next home game will be wth LaConner here on November 2.

NORTH CROSS-STATE HIGHWAY OKAYED BY GOOD ROADS ASS'N.

The twelve member delegation from Skagit County to the Washington State Good Roads Association meeting at Spokane, returned with good news this week. They had won the support of that organization for early action on the construction of the North Cross State Highway.

A resolution was indorsed which had been approved by all the chambers of commerce in this county.

The resolution reads:

"We urge the State Highway Commission and the state Director of Higways to place the North Cross State Highway in the first priority group of projects to be undertaken by the state of Washington: that adequate funds be allocated for construction of the said North Cross State Highway and that work be commenced on this project by our State Highway Department at the earliest possible date."

The three day convention ended Saturday and was attended by all the state highway commission members and State Director of Highways W. A. Bugge.

The Skagit County delegation included representatives of Sedro-Woolley, Anacortes, Mount Vernon and Burlington and was headed by Jess Sapp of Sedro-Woolley, president of the North Cross State Highway Association.

Luella Pearson entertained with a dinner in honor of her son, Forrest Hood's birthday at her home on Wednesday evening. Additional guests were Mrs. Hood and son LaMarr.

Man Who Skipped Bail Returns For Trial Here

Warren George Snodie returned voluntarily to stand trial for a reckless driving charge after hitting the car of Mrs. Clara St. John on October 10th. He posted bail at the time and then disappeared.

In police judge Gilbert Martin's court Tuesday afternoon Snodie was fined $150 and will have to report to ten consecutive meetings of Alcoholics Annonymous. The officers of that organization will report his attendance to the judge.

As a further penalty his driver's license was suspended for 30 days or longer, depending upon approval of the penalty by the state authorities.

Lutheran Church Sets Dedication For Nov. 25

Work on the addition to the Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church here is now far enough along that formal dedication has been set for November 25th.

At that time Dr. Seth Eastvold, vice president of the Evangelical Lutheran Church and President of Pacific Lutheran Church will be the speaker.

NEW EXPLORER SCOUT

George M. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley G. Smith, has recently transferred from Troop 73, Fort Orange Council, New Scotland,N. Y. to Concrete Explorer Post No. 74 of the Mt. Baker Area Council. George is 14 years old and is a second class scout.

His father is a cost engineer at Stone & Webster. He plans to serve on the scout committee and has had experience as a committeeman in Voxhaesville, New York.

Who Says Concrete Is Not Building Houses?

The new home of Mrs. Roxy Wyatt, being completed on the corner lot next to the Presbyterian manse. The outside work is now about done and interior finishing is under way.

The first of the two Forest Service homes being erected in West Concrete, was being given a shake roof last week end by Vince Scott and Bob Komar. The second home will be built on an adjoining lot.

This imposing modern home is being built for Kenneth Sullivan at the corner of Limestone street and Superior Avenue. It looks out over the intersection with the Baker Lake highway.

Garden Club District Meeting At Sedro Friday

The Anacortes "Town and Country" club was given a large round of applause for the work they have been doing in furnishing "guide dogs" for the blind in Skagit county. It was voted to give $70 to be used for the purchasing of tools for the School for Handicapped Adults in Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Ray West of Sumas gave an interesting talk on fall bulb planting and planning and compost care.

Mrs. Olive Thone of Bellingham chairman of the State Junior Program, told of her work with the 'teen-age groups of Garden Clubs and asked help in organizing more junior clubs.

After a sack lunch with coffee furnished by the Sedro-Woolley club, George Darme talked on native shrubs, their place in the yard and their care.

A country store and judging of flower arrangements brought by individual members was an interesting part of the day. Iris Gregory won a third place prize for her arrangement.

Mary Ticknor Passes Sunday

Mary Elizabeth Ticknor, mother of Mrs. C. C. Baughman, passed away Sunday at a Bellingham hospital following a series of strokes that had made her helpless for the past few months. Mrs. Ticknor, a resident of Whatcom county for 40 years, had been making her home with the Baughmans at Sauk the past few years and had made many friends about the community.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at Bellingham with Rev. James B. Hughes officiating. Cremation followed.

Mrs. Ticknor is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Baughman; one granddaughter, Mrs. Ann Valum of Bellingham four great grandchildren; a brother and three sisters residing in Rhinelander, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Mary Ticknor was 83 years of age. She was born Feb. 16, 1873 at Rhinelander, Wisconsin. She and her husband made their home in Whatcom county for 40 years, Mr. Ticknor passing away there about six years ago.

Mrs. Ticknor was a member of the First Baptist church of Bellingham and of the local Rebekahs. She was especially popular here because of her sparkling good humor and lively interest in what was going on around her.

Fresh Snow Drops Low On Hills This Week

Fresh snow began moving down the mountains this week for the first time, dropping as low as the 2,000 foot level by Tuesday and sending many log trucks through town Wednesday covered with new snow. On the lower levels it has been raining hard at intervals, with only brief moments of sun.

Following the weather the residents are busy getting ready for winter. The new mill at Van Horn finished getting their roof on today, so will be out of the weather from now on. Cascade Supply moved the anti-freeze, skid chains and snow shovels nearer the front door and everyone has started talking about what heat will be best for this year. Winter is on the way.

Deer Harvest Not Up To Normal At Meat Shop

Deer hunting continues to be slow in the valley. Last year John Stadlman of the J&M Market cut up 57 deer, 3 elk, 3 bear, 3 moose, 1 antelope and 2 caribou for local hunters.

This year the score so far has been 11 deer, 3 bear, 2 moose.

Ed Monrad was the lucky hunter from main street to bag a deer. He found his on the Lake Shannon logging roads.

Record Set On Voters

With election time approaching at a fast pace, registration books closed and the count now set on the number of voters who will be eligible to vote, it appears that an all-time record has been set for Skagit county registration. There are 26,454 voters on the books.

The second district leads with a total of 11,171 voters; district No. 1 has 8,180 and the third district totals 6,940.

Baker precinct	285
Birdsview	201
East Concrete	242
West Concrete	296
Sauk	47
Rockport	191
Cascade (Marblemount)	283
Total	1545

This year's election will have a lot of interest as it combines the national presidential race with the state election, while on the local level there will be state senators and representatives to choose and two county commissioners to select.

In addition there will be voting for a P. U. D. Commissioner, and in the Concrete school district precincts, a vote of two fund raising proposals for additions to the present school buildings and a new bus garage and busses.

County Auditor Ed Danielson expects a vote of around 21,500 on November 6th.

Hallowe'en To Be Big Evening

Hallowe'en will be a big night for the town of Concrete, if all the plans are carried out to successful conclusion. Top feature of the evening will be the annual Hallowe'en party at the grade school, with a costume parade, movies and eats provided by the town merchants under the leadership of the Legion post.

A second attraction will be a party and pie social to be held at the new Teen Age Center for all young folks over the age of attending the "kid's" party at the school. Both parents and youngsters are invited to attend and enjoy the hospitality of the center.

In a special event for children of Eagles, the local lodge will provide cider, hot dogs, ice cream and cake, starting at 5:30 in the evening to get the youngsters through with this party in time for the Hallowe'en parade. The party will be for children of both Eagles and Auxiliary members.

Workmen Injured In Different Accidents

Two workmen were injured in upriver accidents this past week. Donald Stevens of Snohomish suffered a broken back Tuesday in a fall while working for Beard Construction Co., subcontractor for Stone & Webster.

Donald Tracy, employed by Ed Johnson of Marblemount recived a leg injury in a logging accident. The leg was believed broken when examined here. Both men were taken to the hospital in the same ambulance.

In another accident Ules Foreman of Ross dam was hospitalized a few days this week from injuries received at work there.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Several people from Concrete attended a beautiful bridal shower given for Mrs. Vernon Buchanan (formerly Darlene Rowland) at the home of Mrs. Lois Witham at Marblemount last evening. Mrs. L. Benfield and Mrs. Len Scott assisted. Those from Concrete attending were Mrs. Malloy Rowland, Mrs. Curt Allen, Mrs. Clarence McGuire and Miss Helen Preessentin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Chicago are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brooks and other relaives here. On their way out they stopped off in Montana to visit the George Brooks family.

If the purchaser is other than the holder of Timber Bills of Sale Nos. 513 and 573, logging cannot be started until those sales have been completed.

Time for removal will be two years from date of sale.

The purchaser of the above desribed timber, his heirs and assigns, do hereby agree to comply strictly with all the applicable provisions of Title 76, Revised Code of Washington, in conducting their operations on the lands described, and do further agree to assume all liability of whatsoever kind and nature arising out of their operations and agree to hold the state harmless therefor, and agree to reimburse the state or any duly authorized forest fire protective organization, including the United States Forest Service, for any and all fire fighting costs reasonable made necessary as a result of their operations on said lands, and in particular where they have failed to abate a fire hazard as required and as reffered to in said Title 76, Revised Code of Washington. Said parties agree to reimburse the state for all expenses reasonably incurred by the state as a result of a breach by them of any provision herein set forth. The purchaser, his heirs and assigns, agree to assume responsibility for all acts and operations of their employees, agents and contractors to insure compliance with the provisions above recited.

The purchasers of state timber are required to run out the lines and are responsible for trespass in case timber is cut on adjacent state owned land.

The bill of sale to be issued will give the holder the right to construct logging roads across the above described tract for the removal of said timber, but will not give him any exclusive jurisdiction over the tract. The state reserves the right to grant rights of way for logging roads or for any other purpose over and across the above described tracts at any time and niether the state nor the grantee shall be liable to the holder of the bill of sale for any damage caused thereby.

The Right LENSES For the Job

Painters, musicians, sportsmen—people who need to see close and far objects at practically the same instant—are finding extra comfort and efficiency with today's new "functional" glasses.

Bring your eyes up to date with an expert examination. Perhaps a pair of special-purpose lenses is just what you need for your individual seeing problem.

This election is developing into more and more of a challenge to the voter to do a little thinking. They are asked to rule on whether a man's years in office without great accomplishment are more valuable than trying out a new boy with new ideas. They are called upon to decide whether or not familiar names are only qualifications necessary for holding any office the name happens to choose. They will be called upon to determine whether or not freedom as guaranteed under the constitution can wreck a state. Along with the bedlam of charges and rebuttal they are expected to believe that in one case after another the salvation of everyone depends on voting for one particular office seeker. There are good and bad choices on each ticket, good men who have served a long time, poor officials who have been in so long that their records show only a conscientious regard for the regular salary and assurance that it will continue unabated. It is going to take a lot of thinking to come up with a fair selection of the men who will do the best job. One thing is certain—the mistakes you make are going to be running your government and your life for the next few years. Be careful.

It is newsworthy to mention that while a Russian delegation is here studying American elections, the world is also getting a lesson in how a protest vote is conducted behind the iron curtain. Hungarians are casting their ballots with bullets—the only way left for a slave country.

Now that the postoffices have supplied patrons with ball point pens on a chain, said patrons are daring federal sentence by stealing them, sometimes chain and all. Seriousness of the offense would hinge on whether they stole them to fill out income tax returns or just sign pension checks.

We like Porter LaPlant as P.U.D. commissioner for his nuisance value. Outnumbered and outvoted, he serves valiantly in much the same manner as the lone minority member at a ballot counting. Not much to do—but it keeps the count honest.

Good news for parents! Elvis may be drafted by the first of the year. Will give the kids time to wear out or tire of the old records before a new one comes along. Now there is a man who can really perform a service to his country by signing up.

Adali's attempt to drag the atom bomb into the political race has backfired. Chief result so far has been his endorsement by the Soviet union as the type of man they want in White House.

Women don't do well playing the stock markets, it is said. Just can't get used to buying something that can't be tried on first.

Hallowe'en has no business coming along so close to election. Some of the candidates are already scared stiff.

Giving brings happiness, we are told, but so much taking is going on that the only giving has to be on a spare time basis.

New cars are now coming into the showrooms with more speed, more power and more payments.

Looking About

By Hermie Hollister

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Hockett and family returned Tuesday night after a five week vacation trip that took them over 6000 miles.

They went through Yellowstone Park, the Grand Tetons, and down to Utah. In Salt Lake City they swam in the lake and proved to themselves that they couldn't sink.

After visiting for three days in Boulder, Colorada, with Sumner's uncle, they visited Colorada Springs, Garden of the Gods and Royal Gorge. From there they went on to Kansas and then to Drumright and Tulsa, Oklahoma, visiting other relatives.

Coming home they took the southern route through Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, to Glendora, California. Here they visited a week with Sumner's brother, Dolan, who has lived here. During that week they visited Tiajuana, Mexico, the San Diego zoo, Knott's Berry Farm and Disneyland before coming home.

Gerald Helland, who was released from the service early in September, has since been married to a Texas girl. They are living in San Antonio, where she works as a telephone operator and he is a meat cutter.

In spite of a very nasty day, the Missionary Fellowship last Wednesday had a very good turnout. They met at the home of Mrs. Roy Hollister with Mrs. Henry Bronson as co-hostess. Twenty-five members were present and two guests, Mrs. Floyd Roller and Mrs. Edgar Monrad's mother, Mrs. Oleson of Mount Vernon. At the close of the meeting a handkerchief shower was held for Mrs. W. H. Wallace, who will be leaving soon for a new home.

Ben Solomon, who has undergone surgery twice in the last few weeks, returned to Seattle last Thursday for a check-up and must go back this coming Sunday for another.

Mr. and Mrs. George Quiggle spent several days last week at Lake Chelan.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King and three children of Sedro-Woolley were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Bates.

C. S. Phillips returned home from the Memorial hospital last Saturday and is much improved. However, he still has a bad cough which doesn't help those taped up ribs.

Monday dinner guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Riffle were Rev. and Mrs. Wheeler and family of Bellingham and Rev. and Mrs. Crowell of Lansing, Michigan. The Crowells are currently holding evangelistic services at the Baptist church in Sedro-Woolley.

The K. Y. N. C's. met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ben Gross. Eight members were present to enjoy a pot luck lunch and a meeting and games.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Hockett and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sallberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Engleson of Seattle arrived Thursday of this week to stay until Sunday as guests at the Viv Bates home.

Murray Johnstone, who is attending school in Tacoma, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Johnstone.

DALE CARNEGIE

DOROTHY N. EPPERSON, Rt. 2, Neosho, Missouri, has written us not a story but an inspiring letter about her parents. If what she says about them could be said about all parents, there would be little juvenile delinquency in the world and much more happiness. Here is the gist of her letter:

"My mother and my father were profuse in their praise of anything well done, and more advisory than critical of any faults in their children. Their advice to their children was always given in a manner suggestive of the belief in the one advised and his or her ability and desire to improve. I cannot recall a single word of harsh criticism ever made by either of them.

"My parents lived to be eighty years old, having reared five children who have given them many grandchildren, and the entire family was devoted to them. A favorite saying of my mother's was, 'The biggest room in the world is the room for self-improvement.'"

VANDEMAN'S BURLINGTON

Wedding Party of Miss Barbara McGaha and Lee Everett

In a double ring ceremony at the Methodist church in Oak Harbor on the evenng of September 21, Miss Barbara McGaha, became the bride of Lee Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Everett of that city.

The long fitted sleeves tapered to a point over the wrist, and her full length veil of Venetian lace fell from a Juliet cap.

As Your Skagit County

P.U.D. Commissioner

The issue in this P.U.D. election is clear. It is whether the people of Skagit county want to elect a business man to the board, or to have a paid Grange employee who is a public power enthusiast, on the P.U.D. board.

Skagit County's Public Utility District is big business and needs business men to handle it. In my six years of service on this board, it has made much progress, and I think I am qualified to be continued in this position and to give Skagit county efficient service as a commissioner.

During my term as P.U.D. commissioner, the special 2 mill annual tax to help finance P.U.D. activities, has not been levied, although the law permits it. This has helped the taxpayers save many thousands of dollars, and is just one of the things that could be changed overnight with no one on the board fighting such expenditures.

"I REMEMBER"
BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. Jack Rowan, Nebraska: I remember the first term of school I taught in Keya-Paha County, Nebraska, then nicknamed Mob Co., on account of several lynchings which had occurred over stock stealing. The little log school house stood back in the breaks of the Niobrara River, was 12x14 feet, with two small windows for light along each side of the room. The roof was covered with brush, hay and dirt, and a few sunflowers growing on the roof seemed to wave me a welcome that September morning in 1891 as I entered the schoolyard where the children stood waiting for their new teacher.

The furniture in the building consisted of slab benches, along two sides of the room, a small home-made table and "boughten" teacher's chairs. Each child furnished his own books—Harper's Guffey's, or what have you, with slate and slate pencils. After all these years I can still hear the scratching of those pencils or the sound of some small boy spitting on his slate and wiping it clean with his shirt sleeve. A few older children owned copy books and pen and ink and the small table was conveniently moved about for writing lessons.

WANT to frost a cake easily? Place it on a lazy Susan so that it revolves with a touch of the finger as you swirl the icing around it. Next time you make refrigerator cookies, give them a different appearance by cutting with a French-fry cutter so they'll have a corrugated effect.

Whenever you're cooking, lay the utensils and ingredients out on a tray before you begin. Then you can check the recipe to make certain everything's there and you won't forget such vital ingredients as baking powder or salt. As you use each utensil, replace on the tray. It will keep your working surface clean and everything can be lifted to the sink for washing in one operation.

Keep salt and pepper and flour near your range as well as at the mixing center. You'll save steps by having the necessities where you use them.

Put leftover bits of vegetables in a plastic container. Freeze in the refrigerator compartment or freezer. Use them as a combined vegetable when there's enough.

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE
Hot Salmon Puff
(Serves 3)

- 7¾ ounce can red salmon
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon onion salt
- ½ teaspoon worcestershire sauce
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- ½ cup condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 1 egg, separated
- ½ cup heavy cream, whipped

Mash salmon with fork, add seasonings, condensed soup and egg yolk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white and whipped cream. Turn into greased baking dish or 3 custard cups. Cover with aluminum foil and tie with string. Place ½ cup water in pressure cooker, set molds on rack and cook for 15 minutes at 10 pounds pressure. Remove from heat, reduce pressure gradually.

STATEMENT:

The office of Public Utility District Commissioner is a non-partisan office for which the entire county will vote on November 6th.

My interest in filing for this public office is to work with the other two commissioners towards securing the best possible water service for Skagit county. I think it is the duty of a P. U. D. commissioner to see that the water and power resources of the Northwest are handled in such a manner as to result in the maximum benefit to the public.

I can see no valid reason at the present time for Skagit county to go into the electrical business. As long as Puget Sound Power and Light continues to serve both the domestic and industrial demands for power with rates and service comparable to other areas in the Northwest it would be unnecessary.

Never before in history has anything built by man traveled so far in so short a time

—by land or sea!

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under the supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 108.16 mph for the entire run . . . Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 458 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah . . . it was the longest left turn in history.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world . . . a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird Y-block V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no other cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy . . . and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

Q—Is there a historical record of when the calling of the Constitutional Convention was first discussed?

A—According to colonial historians the idea was first broached at a meeting at Washington's home at Mount Vernon where the Maryland and Virginia Commissioners met to discuss problems of interstate navigation. The meeting turned to a discussion of trade relations between the colonial states. They sent out notices to all the states to send delegates to a convention in Annapolis in September, 1786. Only five state delegations appeared. The Annapolis meeting sent out a call for a convention in Philadelphia in May, 1787 and then adjourned.

Q—What is the proper form for addressing a letter to the President?

A—The address should be merely, "The President, The White House." The salutation in a letter should be either "Mr. President" or "Dear Mr. President."

Q—Did George Washington ever live in the White House?

A—No.

A—Yes. He kept a daily record. It amounted to about $64,000 and was presented to the Comptroller at Philadelphia for payment at the end of the war. The manuscript is now on file in the Register's office in the Treasury building, and is considered one of the most interesting of the early American historical documents.

Q—When was Washington inaugurated as President?

A—His term of office began on March 4, 1789, although he was not inaugurated until April 30, 1789.

Q—When was the budget system introduced in the Federal Government?

A—In 1921 when the Budget and Accounting Act was passed.

THIS WIDE, WONDERFUL WORLD

By Franklin J. Meine
Editor, The American Peoples Encyclopedia.

Bram Stoker had a basis in truth when he wrote his horror story, "Dracula," a tale of a man who could change into a vampire bat. The vampire bat is a blood-feeding bat of Mexico, Central, and South America. They are small, about four inches long, and tailless. In Trinidad, Brazil, and Mexico, the vampire bat has transmitted paralytic rabies causing the death of stock and some human beings, for vampires prey on livestock, dogs, chickens, and humans. Vampires live in colonies, in caves, and in abandoned houses. This bat was named at a time when the belief in human vampires was very strong, particularly in Europe. Belief in vampire bats prevailed in Babylonia, Chaldea, and Assyria, and in more recent times in the Balkan States, Greece, Armenia, Turkey, Syria, Russia, Persia, Burma, India, and Mexico. Even today, in the remoter parts of Greece, the "human" vampire legend is not extinguished.

Zoos are not merely amusement areas for children. The oldest records, dating back to 1100 B. C., state that the founder of the Chou dynasty in China had collected wild animals and kept them in an enclosure called an "Intelligence Park." Incidentally, the Philadelphia Zoo is the oldest in the United States. It was opened to the public in 1874, and included thousands of mammals, birds, reptiles, and amphibians.

LOOKING ABOUT—

By Hermie Hollister

Rev. Ralph Gwin of the Presbyterian church had Sunday dinner at the Don Ross home.

Larry Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Montgomery, is in St. Joseph's hospital in Bellingham again. He was taken there Friday night with a very high temperature. His parents stayed with him until Monday and report that he is better, but not yet well enough to undergo surgery.

At last we have seen our new little grandson, the little Korean war orphan. He is a fine looking little fellow, will be three years old in March and shows his Korean ancestry in the shape of his eyes and head, though his complexion is fairly light. We went to Seattle to see him this past week end and found everyone very pleased with him but Paul becomes very angry with his new family at times because they are just too stupid to understand Korean. I'm afraid he will find life quite frustrating at times until he can talk and understand English.

Mrs. Viv Bates of Birdsview was one of the few lucky hunters, bringing home a small buck.

FENCE LINES

PREVENT KINKS . . . You can unwind a roll of wire without kinks if you start feeding wire from the outside of the roll and unloop a given number of turns as you walk with it. Step, turn the roll 180 degrees and unroll an equal number of turns, repeating process until roll is unwound.

ATTENTION LEGIONNAIRES!

To get the saving your check for dues must be in the mail and postmarked before Nov. 30th. Do it now!

When You Vote Remember . . . A man does not change when he becomes Governor. If he has been responsible throughout his career—he will be responsible as Governor. If he has been dependable, honest with other people throughout his life, he will have these characteristics as Governor. Responsibility, dependability, integrity are not automatically attained upon election. If we want these qualities in a Governor he must bring them with him into office.

ART LANGLIE GETS THINGS DONE!

His Record Proves It . . .

As the only Governor of our state ever to be elected for three terms, Langlie has proved that he "gets things done" for all of us. More than 100 bills have been signed into law beneficial to farmers and agriculture. Almost as many have been signed into law benefiting workers and labor. Unparalleled progress has been made in fields of industrial safety, programs for our aged people, expansion of sports fishing, increases in unemployment compensation, and many, many more.

In Washington, D. C., Too . . .

Langlie "gets things done" in Washington, D. C., too. Getting fair distribution of tonnage for Washington's sugarbeet farmers, cracking the stalemate holding up reappraisal of Richland homes . . . solving the almost disastrous pollution problem at Ft. Lewis . . . these are only a few of many examples of needed action at the Federal level obtained through Langlie's aid.

As United States Senator . . .

Langlie will do more for ALL of us because he will work WITH, not against the Eisenhower Administration. Langlie's straight-out program includes: IMMEDIATE AID AND LONG-RANGE ANSWERS TO FARM PROBLEMS, AID FOR SMALL BUSINESS, EXTENSION OF WORKERS' BENEFITS, ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY IN GOVERNMENT, PROTECTION OF FISHING AND HUNTING among many positive programs for the benefit of ALL of us.

Arthur B. Langlie will give us LEADERSHIP, not politics, and give us ACTION, not reams of publicity.

Prior to the primary election, all candidates were asked to publically express themselves on certain vital issues. One such issue was as follows:

Dr. Coquet, health officer, has proposed an expanded health program including the employment of a second sanitarian . . . and a third public health nurse in 1957 . . . Do you favor or disapprove or such expansion . . . ?

BERT L. HEGGEN

"If the cities and school districts approve this plan, then I think the county by all means, should go along."

BERT HEGGEN'S Opponent, who boasts of 22 years experience as a county commissioner, replied, "Am in no position to answer this question previous to the budget hearing."

Ironically Bert Heggen's opponent was not aware of recent Commissioner activities as just beneath his answer was the answer of another member of the present board of commissioners who stated publically, "Dr. Coquet's proposal was approved by the board of county commissioners before it was presented to the schools and cities."

G. Ira Loree
Skagit County Superintendent of Schools
Mount Vernon, Washington
Dear Ira:

Because there seems to be some confusion as to my feelings as to how Federal Forest moneys received by Skagit County should be distributed let me make the record straight.

For the past several years I have voted for and the schools throughout Skagit County have received fifty per cent of these moneys. This is what the schools asked for.

Because of the rapidly growing school population in Skagit County the schools need all the available money. I personally pledge that I will continue to vote for the schools to get at least fifty per cent of these Forest moneys.

Wonderful Homecoming For CHS

Homecoming was reported to be a huge success this year. The pep assembly was peppy—the Seniors won the skit contest and tho it was raining a great number of students were out for the parade in which the Sophomore float won first prize.

Best of all, the CHS Lions defeated the Langely Falcons 19 to 7.

Lois Hurn, president of the Junior class reports that the dance was very well attended and everyone had a wonderful time dancing to the music of Mel McKee. At the coronation preceeding the dance, Sharon King was crowned as queen of the celebration and Joe Weckerly as king.

Parade Judges

Last Bus Trip For Seniors

This Friday night the Lions will travel to Sultan where they will meet the Sultan Turks for the last away from home game of the season. For Seniors Dennis Medford, David Wahl, Tom Boury, Ron Howell, Bob Sullivan, Dick Rathvon, Joe Weckerly and Floyd Batt this game will mark the end of the bus trips to out of town games in high school fooball.

Rustlers Escape Road Block By County Officers

Skagit county sheriff's deputies were out hunting cattle rustlers Tuesday night, but were forced to admit defeat due to the many different roads in the area. A road block was set up at the Dalles bridge after a report was received from Darrington that four cows had been stolen near there, and that the thieves were believed on their way toward the Skagit.

A description of the two men and their truck was broadcast and while local Deputy Stu Reynolds headed toward Darrington, other members of the force covered both roads up the Skagit river from Sedro-Woolley to the Dalles bridge.

The search netted no truck fitting the description of carrying four cows. The escape is believed to have been made by using other rural roads, which now cover the valley country from Rockport to the Suiattle and west in the next valley to the sound.

Millers Enjoy Long Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Miller returned this past week after a three-week vacation trip that took them as far east as New York City. The trip was made to attend a reunion of navy buddies of Magnus, with whom he served in Trinidad.

The Millers traveled 7,000 miles in good weather after leaving Concrete in a rain storm. They visited at Lincoln and Omaha, Nebraska, at Chicago with friends there, and along the way managed side trips to Yellowstone National Park and Washington, D. C.

They were greeted upon their arrival home with the same old rain storm that sped them on their way.

LEGION AIRS

New members welcomed into the Auxiliary were Irene Pressentin, Charlotte Hoover and Maureen Dickinson.

Christmas gifts for hospitalized veterans gift shops should be sent in or brought in before November 17th. Gifts may be left at the Legion hall, Concrete Drug or Concrete Department Store.

Hostesses for the evening were Gladys McGovern, Ellamae Wright, Grace Hoover and Helen Finney.

The next meeting will be November 14th with the Legionaires as hosts.

Grads Return

Among the grads coming back home for the big Homecoming celebration were Gwen Boulton, who is now teaching at Sumas, Martin Spargo, who is with the Air Force and stationed at Blaine, Bob Royal, who attends Edison Technical in Seattle, Mickey McGuire and Glenn Rathvon, U. of W.

From Western Washington College of Education at Bellingham came Jim Harris, Donna Rhodes Sullivan, Arlene Richins and Betty McGuire Mafli.
