

THIS & THAT

By H. L. D.

It is odd how a chain-reaction of buying, selling and moving can be set up without anyone really trying to turn over property. A chance remark about future plans gets around and in no time a three-way real estate deal is in the making.

Such was the case when Floyd Smith, our rural mail carrier, started planning for retirement. He and Hazel wanted a trailer instead of their big place down at Birdview, so they could spend the winter months traveling around the country. This was still in the future however, and they had no idea of selling at this time.

Eddie and Nell Pulice had always wanted Smitty's place and as other possible buyers began to ask Smitty about selling, Eddie put up a "For Sale" sign in his front yard with hopes that he could get his property sold to take up his "first in line" priority.

Then the state decided to build the new road in East Concrete and that made a move necessary for the Troy Robertsons, as their truck garage property would be taken by the state. Mrs. Robertson liked the Pulice home and the location and acreage was right for their business—so another deal was made.

The Smiths kept one acre of their place, built a puny block utility building on it and cleared it so that it is a natural park. Then they set out to order the trailer they had dreamed of. It should be delivered very soon and then the Smiths will move to the acre, or "The Anchor" as they call it; the Pulices will move to Birdview; and the Robertsons can get started on the Pulice place to build office, garage and do the necessary remodeling so they can move in.

Who says you can't sell property in the upper valley—it sells itself!

BRING BACK SCHOOL DAYS

Have any tender memories about the desk you sat in when you went to school? Want to relive those happy days of readin', writin' and rubbin' out the window? You can—for only $1.

The school district has been replacing the old desks, room by room, for several years and now have a big surplus of old desks to be disposed of. Anyone wanting a desk, or desks may contact the high school office, or the grade office in the afternoon, pay down their money and take their choice.

SHOWER TO BE HELD

Saturday night, September 18th, at 8:00 P. M. there will be an open house and miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. Dale Gardner in the social room of the Lutheran church and all friends of the young couple and their families are invited. No invitations are being sent just a general invitation to the community. Hostesses are Mrs. Alvin Harris, Mrs. Lou Seely, Mrs. Les Wilkinson, Mrs. Norton Sheller and Mrs. Robert Sjoen.

Ten Horse Relay Beats Two Horses 10 Minutes

The West Side rider in the Labor Day weekend "pony express" race over the route of the North Cross-State Highway from Ross dam to Winthrop, didn't win the race but showed the stamina of west-side horses. Oscar Peterson of Mount Vernon rode the 53 miles in eight hours and twenty-five minutes, using only two horses—riding one and leading the other alternately.

The Eastside rider used a string of ten horses stationed along the trail and only beat Peterson's time by ten minutes.

Rules of the race called for the ten-horse relay, but the western slope backers of race found it impossible to round up enough horses to compete on those terms.

The idea of the race is to point up the fact that a day's ride by a fast horse will soon be covered in less than two hours by normal motoring.

The stunt was part of a celebration put on by the Winthrop Chamber of Commerce. The Winthrop people will entertain the North Cross-State Highway Association at their election of officers meeting there on Saturday of this week.

Contract Let For Road Work On Suittale

Four miles of reshaping the existing road, laying 6600 cubic yards of pit run gravel ballast and about 8,000 cubic yards of crushed rock was listed in a contract given to Marine Asphalt Co. of Anacortes by the U. S. Forest Service this week. The improvement will be on the Suittale road between Darington and Concrete, extending east from the new Sauk bridge.

The low bid on the job was $30,424.

Ferndale Loggers Triple Baker Sale Appraisal

Gordon Moran and Norman Robertson of Ferndale were the top bidders on nearly 25½ million feet of timber in the Baker River District at Bellingham last Tuesday. They paid more than three times the appraised value to outbid the thirteen others seeking the sale.

The appraisal was $107,370 for the 504 acres. The Ferndale men paid $343,885. They bid $42,40 a thousand for Douglas fir; $32.05 for the cedar and $9.45 for the hemlock.

F. E. Foss & Sons of Anacortes were second high with their bid of $343,730. W. S. Van de Grift of Hamilton dropped out way back at $178,715.

Two Accidents Reported During Past Week

Two auto accidents were reported in the valley during the past week, one of which turned up one of the most mangled car bodies hauled in for some time. This was the 1955 Buick driven by Jesse L. Barton, 33, of Albany, Oregon. He went over the bank near the old Hooper place about 3.9 miles east of Rockport on 17-A Saturday evening.

He failed to make a corner at high speed and wound his car up into a pile of tangled junk. He was treated at the Concrete Clinic for cuts and bruises, but otherwise was unhurt and continued on to his job at Newhalem.

The second accident was a collision on the Baker Lake road between cars driven by Earl Kahal, 40 of Mount Vernon, and Johan Wenberg, 42, North Bend. They met on a curve six miles north of this city Sunday afternoon. Minor damage, no one hurt.

Death Takes Husband Of Helen Baxter

Belated word was received here this week of the death of Robert Hutchison of Seattle on August 11. Mr. Hutchison was the husband of the former Helen Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Baxter. Mrs. Hutchison went through school here and has many friends in the valley. She has been staying with her parents in Mount Vernon since the death of her husband after a lingering illness, but was to return to her home in Seattle this week.

McGUIRE HEADS LIONS

The Concrete Lions Club began regular meetings after the summer holiday with the first session at the Eagles Hall last Wednesday evening.

Clarence McGuire is president of the club this term.

FALL JURY TERM WILL HAVE CASES EFFECTING UPPER VALLEY PEOPLE

The next term of the Skagit County Superior Court will begin on October 10th, with several cases on the docket of interest to the upper valley.

The murder case in which Zella Rose MacDonald of Concrete is charged with second degree murder for the gunshot death of her husband July 21st, will be heard October 18th to 21st.

On Nov. 15 a $24,944 damage suit will be heard in which James Barrett seeks that amount from Charles C. Brown and Charles T. Parker Construction Co. for a high way accident near Marblemount in May.

On Nov. 16th Bernard Hambleton will seek $15,750 damages from Rudy Clark of Marblemount for action of his bull, which broke into the Hambleton pasture.

Nov. 22-23 is set to hear the case of Eula Cook vs. P. S. P. & L. and Joe Finden for a truck-car wreck near Birdview May 10. The plaintiff a-ks $15,758 damages; the power company has a cross-complaint of $500 for truck damages.

Dec. 6-7 William A. Gerrits will seek judgement of $7,686 in auto damages on behalf of his daughter, Margaret, who was hurt in a car-falling truck accident near Sedro-Woolley July 3rd. David Phillips of this city is the defendant.

Jury Panel Drawn

Those from the upper valley to be members of the fall term jury panel include Chester Comstock, Ora Brown, Sara Ely, John Livie, Pearl Hulehinson, and Iris Gregory of Concrete; Alice Hurn, Nona Johnson of Route 1; and Robert Bangert of Rockport.

Trained In Metal Casting

Darrel L. Presentin, who has just completed the 15-week machinist course at the Aberdeen, Md. Proving Grounds, was trained to operate metal machinery used in casting, modifying and forging automotive and armament parts. He has been assigned to active duty in Germany.

No 6 Mill School Levy

The Upper Skagit School District will skip the 6 mill levy collected for bond redemption this next year. A reserve has been built up so that no new funds will be required for the next payment.

It is expected that the levy will be resumed after a year's moratorium.

Primary Vote Is Light; Interesting

A light primary vote in the state was reflected in the same lack of enthusiasm in the county, but in the races that had to be decided the valley and county also followed the general trend to give Lloyd Andrews, Republican candidate for governor, a lead in total vote over incumbent Gov. Albert Rosellini.

Also set to battle it out at the general election will be Vic Myers (D), and Edwin Alexander (R) for Secretary of State; John Cherberg (D) and William Millard (R) for Lieutenant Governor; Louis Bruno and A. T. Van DeVanter for State Supt. of Schools; Payson Peterson of Snohomish won nomination for Congressman on the Democratic ticket to oppose Jack Westland, incumbent Republican, who rolled up a big vote even though unopposed.

Locally the Hospital District plan for this area was approved by a good majority and Joe Fisher of Sedro-Woolley was chosen as the director from that section. Martin Steen of Hamilton and Fred Shular of Van Horn were unopposed as the other directors.

Eighty-four voted in the East precinct; 162 in the West and about 125 in Baker.

For county commissioner candidates the First and Second Commissioner districts weeded out the rest of prospective candidates to leave Scott Richards (D) and Wm. Sullivan (R) to oppose each other in November; and Joy Busha (D incumbent) and Leroy VanCleave (R) to vie for the Second District position.

Fred Martin (D) and Buehl Berentson (R) each unopposed for the State Senator candidacies, came out close in the final count with the up-river veteran ahead by less than 1400 votes. Don Eldridge and Ralph Rickdall (R) led the legislative ticket with Guy Rowland (D) in third spot. All will run off for the two position again.

For County Assessor it will be Joel Gillette (R incumbent) versus George Dunlap (D) in the finals.

Great Balls Of Fire!

Suspected bits of space satellites burning up in the earth's atmosphere are being credited as the cause of recent reports about the country of flaming objects falling to earth. One such incident was reported here Sunday morning as a man saw a flaming ball of fire drop out of sight near Grand Lake about 2:00 a.m.

He reported it as a plane crash, but investigation by police officers found no evidence of such an accident or any indication that any military or civilian aircraft were missing or in the area at that time.

Glacier Peak Now In Wilderness Reserve

Another 458,505 acres of the State of Washington went into cold storage this week as approval by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson in Washington, D. C. created the Glacier Peak Wilderness Area, which takes in Glacier Peak and considerable of the mountain country to the north and east of that 10,528 foot peak.

Roughly the area now closed to most commercial development and roads, covers the original area set up some years ago. The boundary crosses the Suittale river about on a line with Sulphur Mountain, cuts north in angled squares to miss Green Mountain, then takes in Hurricane Peak, Mt. Chaval. The boundary turns just south of Granite Lake and follows the crest of the ridges up the Cascade and down the Stehikin River towards Lake Chelan. From there the border again follows the ridges south, leaving most of the valleys as access.

Under the regulations all area inside the boundaries will be managed by the Forest Service in a natural condition. Roads (except for access to private property) logging, and other commercial developments will be prohibited. Only trails for foot or horse will provide access.

Prospecting and mining may be continued under provisions of the mining laws. Necessary roads may be eliminated from the Wilderness without further hearing on such portions of the area so affected.

Within the wilderness are over 30 mountain peaks, rising from five to nine thousand feet. There are a number of glaciers; innumerable lakes, many inaccessible except to the most rugged climbers.

Much effort on the part of hiking and mountaineering groups had been applied to extend the Wilderness to include practically all the territory north to the Canadian border, which would have included almost everything from Baker Lake east and from Cascade Pass north and east. This was turned down and the Forest Service instructed to handle this area primarily for recreational use. Roads, camp ground, winter sports developments and resorts will be authorized.

The North Cross-State Highway will not be affected and may be built as planned.

OLD RAILROAD COMING DOWN

The steel railroad span that carried rail traffic for many years between Newhalem and Diablo, is now fast disappearing under the wrecker's tools. The new lake will cover its site. This is the span from which Charles Beaman fell to his death last week while dismantling the steel. —Simcox Photo

No News Like True News

Nothing makes a newspaper editor happier than a "scoop." But it seems to me some editors overdo it now and then.

Last week, for example, an editor claimed his paper was the first in his city to report the Mayor's "impending retirement." But, judging from the next day's edition of the same paper, the Mayor had other ideas.

As a result, the lead editorial in that newspaper then started off like this: "We are glad to be the first paper in the city to inform our public that the story of the Mayor's retirement is just a rumor." From where I sit, facts and truth always win out, no matter how you disguise them. That goes for newspapers as well as for neighbors. For instance, your choice of beverage may be a glass of iced tea ... mine is an occasional glass of beer. Now each of us could make up quite a "story" about which of us is right. But the fact is we're both right—now let's just respect each other's point of view.
