FEATHERS from the Duster

By The Overtime Editor

IT TAKES something more than a passing knowledge of a woman's problems to realize what a marvelous job our female citizens are doing to uphold the moral, build the grand illusions and generally make men feel happy and well adjusted with the bi-partisan arrangement of life on this planet between two quite different human types. Too few men know the work and effort that goes into the effect created when a gal appears all decked out for that special occasion. The features that have to be embellished, the things that have to be persuaded into proper position, the little effects of showmanship that men have been taught to expect in their picture of the ideal woman. Well, several of our more pliable "good sports" now have a great deal of respect for women in general.

Saturday night's "Style Show" at the Legion gave near hysterics to a large crowd, but the biggest show was backstage when the boys spent a good hour trying to solve the complexities of getting into a simple facsimile of women's wear. Skip the remarks and you find that it was a classic revelation of secrets of another organization, hitherto known as the opposite sex.

It was quite a shock to learn that silk stocking do make legs look better even if they are knotted and bulgy. That lipstick and eyebrow pencil can distract from the well established noses, mustaches and off-the-face ears. Such functional garments as displayed in the family magazines can even trap completely detached bulges into proper position, though with a man's exaggerated sense of proportion few could see the hem of their dress for the charm they tied on. And on high heels you don't dare lean too far forward.

With all the grace they could muster the models tripped onto the stage and womanfully did their bit of sacrifice for dear old Legion as the crowd howled for encore. Back in the dressing room it took just seconds to get those glad rags off and get back into the now absolute simplicity of shirt and slacks. No regrets at parting with the glamor at all. Let the women have it. And no wonder they prefer and have pre-empted the trouser for everyday wear!

The Drivettes had a high team game of 624 last week and a high series of 1744. The individual high game of 183 and series of 518 was made by Lucille Payne.

Plan Rally For Pass Highway

The first executive committee meeting of the North Cross-State Highway Ass'n. of the new year was held last Friday evening in Mount Vernon with Vice President Lowell Peterson presiding.

Principal business of the session was to make plans for a full membership meeting to be held within next next few months. The board members selected the Mount Vernon Elk's Club as the best possible site and will announce the date as soon as arrangements can be made.

The plan is to have as special guests for the banquet, the governor, officials of the state highway department, the highway commission and legislative members. Advance tickets will be sold to assure a huge crowd for the occasion.

In another bit of promotion the group heard a proposal by Sam Whitaker of the Burlington Journal to publish a complete history of the Cross-State highway, complete with pictures and maps. Much of the copy has already been prepared as articles in the Journal. Writing and research was by Ray Jordan.

The Association agreed that the idea was excellent and will help to promote the printing through endorsement and sale of the books.

The group discussed plans for future promotion of the highway and reviewed bills in legislature in regard to effect on the building of the highway.

Attending the business session were Lowell Peterson and Chuck Dwelley from Concrete; Gerry Gannon and Ken King of Bellingham; H. L. Nolan, Bob Kellep, Bernard Johnson and Arnell Johnson of Anacortes; Fred Miller and Stephan Koehler of Sumas; J. A. Anderson of Everson; Gene Hopkins and Herman Hansen of Mount Vernon; Sig Berglund of Sedro-Woolley and Sig Hjaltalin of Bellingham.

Spring Social Season Has Busy Opening Here

The social season in Concrete seemed to herald the advance of Spring last week. Thursday evening the Lions Club entertained their ladies with a dinner at Bakke's smorgasbord at Burlington. In attendance were over forty from this community. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. John Stadlman were presented with a cake in honor of their 38th wedding anniversary. Program for the evening was singing to accompaniment of Mrs. Roy Sidham at the piano.

Saturday night was the annual Legionnaire Style Show, with the men acting as models. The club was well filled by the time the gals were ready to appear and the result was a hilarious good time. Alice Dwelley acted as commentator for the review as Rudy Johnson, Chuck Dwelley, Jack Olds, Jack Hoover, Marion Ueland, Dan Johnson, Slim Evans, Dave Wright and Lowell Peterson paraded their idea of feminine apparel before the audience. The evening closed with a fresh crab feed.

Sunday evening over a hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Johnson gathered at the Eagles dining hall at their invitation for a full smorgasbord dinner as their farewell party. The Johnsons are leaving soon for Arkansas, where they will join their daughter and family.

Before the dinner the guests had time to visit with the Johnsons and each other, then Lowell Peterson took over as impromptu master of ceremonies to call on many from the crowd to say a few words of farewell to the Johnsons. At the conclusion of the evening the invited guests presented their hosts with a going-away gift of a travel clock and some "return-trip" funds.

● SENIORS WIN CONTEST

The Seniors won the March of Dimes Drive at C.H.S. with the highest percentage for each person. A movie will be shown later in the year. The Senior Class will see it free and all the other classes will have to pay, since they were the losing classes.

Things Are Pretty Tough On The Upper Skagit!

This is an American citizen. He was born here.
He woke up last week from a long nap to find—
He was hungry,
He was grouchy,
He was unemployed,
He had no birth certificate,
No social security number,
No "rocking chair" credits,
No welfare qualifications,
No surplus ration tickets,
No nothing.

Authorities found that he—
Had no visible means of support,
Had never paid income taxes,
Belonged to no union, no lodge, no church,
Didn't vote for Kennedy,
Had a violent temper,
And was a reactionary independent.
So what could they do?
—They sent a government man around to shoot him.

Shape up, Buster. It's later than you think!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor:

The PTA Rockport Mothers wish to state at this time that we do not want our school lunch program back.

We do not understand why it is being offered back at a time when the District is in an alleged financial squeeze.

We are grateful for the consideration given so that we still have our school.

Rockport PTA and mothers.

To The Editor:

A couple of weeks ago there were two articles in your paper about a cut in the school budget and a cut in the staff of our school here in Concrete. The cut in the budget is $13,052.43. The cut in the staff is four. It doesn't seem very fair, or reasonable that we have the Rockport school running, where we have two teachers teaching 27 students. It is a known fact that one of the grade school teachers has 33 students in her class. This makes one teacher carry a load of 33, while two others have only 17 and 10 students in their classes. This is due to the school election held last year. This proves what voting can do. It was the heavy turn out of voters in the Rockport area, and the poor turn out in the Concrete area which determined the cut and where it would take place.

Our children can not possibly learn to their capacity when we overload our classrooms. Our area seems to be regressing where it has taken others years of hard work to get where we are today. The children will be the direct benefactors of this situation. Our responsibility to our children does not end by loving them, feeding them, and clothing them. We have a share in their future, and that share is our vote in all that concerns them.

Our teachers and administrators have spent years of their lives in colleges learning the subjects they teach. Things don't come easy to these people, but they too have a voice in what their school system does, and that voice is their vote.

This is a plea to the parents and teachers and all who are concerned about the situation. One of the objects of our P. T. A. is to develop between educators and

Hurn Mill Now Has Own Hydro Electric Plant

There was a minor celebration at the Hurn Shingle Mill on the Sauk last Saturday afternoon when their hydro-electric generator went into use for the first time. Work of installing a pipe line has been under way for several months and Saturday the line was connected to a pelton wheel and the water turned on.

The power system replaces the old engine operated light plant and will furnish sufficient light and power for the homes and lights for the shake and shingle mill.

Straight & Hooper Get Illabot Creek Sale

In a state sale held Tuesday at Sedro-Woolley, Straight and Hooper Co. of Sedro-Woolley made the high bid of $6,894 for scattered old growth timber in the Illabot Creek area. Coming up soon will be a more sizeable sale by the Forest Service on Finney Creek—called the Finney Pie Sale. This is an eight-acre piece containing about 300 M board feet of fir; 90 M of cedar and 60 M of hemlock. Appraisal calls for a bid of $26.75 on the fir, $18.20 for the cedar and $14.05 for hemlock.

The sale will be made at the Concrete District Headquarters at 10 a.m. March 27th. Final bidding will be oral.

New Hospital Is United General

United General Hospital will be the name of the new medical center now being planned by the joint hospital district of the upper valley and Burlington area. The name was submitted in a contest by Bill Schmidt of Sedro-Woolley, who is to receive the $25 bond. There were eighty-three names submitted and, according to Joe Fisher, hospital district commissioner, it was difficult to chose from the list.

"United General" was chosen because of the united effort of the communities it will serve, and the word "General" is necessary to indicate that the hospital will be a general care facility. The judges were reluctant to discard some of the more fanciful and descriptive names such as Moutain View, Midway, Mid-Valley, etc. but did so in the interest of a more practical term.

Burlington Guild Forming

Members of the Memorial Guild from the Upper Valley and the Sedro-Woolley area attended a preorganization meeting of the Burlington Guild Tuesday evening in that city. Over 150 were present to hear Dr. Pete King explain the need for guild work in the new hospital. Mrs. J. W. McCann and Mrs. Jean McIntire of Sedro-Woolley spoke on the history of the Memorial guild and the work they had done over the years. They also outlined suggestions for forming a new group.

Charles Lampson, hospital administrator, was present with the plans and a colored picture of the new hospital and answered many questions on the plans.

Bonds To Be Sold

This week's issue carries the call for bids on general obligation bonds with which proceeds the hospital will be financed. The bids on $835,000 in bonds will be opened at Burlington City Hall on Tuesday, March 12th.

Mt. Vernon Lad Shoots 23 Of 25 In Contest

George Regan, Eagles secretary, went to Mount Vernon Friday evening to present their Hoop Shoot trophies to winners at the county level. First place winner was Gary Flannigan of Mount Vernon who hit 23 out of 25. In second was last year's winner who also tied for first in the state. He had tough luck with his 21.

Miss Judith Ellinaboe Weds John M. Wharton

Miss Judith Irene Ellingboe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Ellingboe of Newhalem, became the bride of James McKeen Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wharton, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 9th at 2:00 P. M. The wedding was held at the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Sedro-Woolley before a crowd of about 150 relatives and friends.

The double ring ceremony was read by Pastor Carl E. Samuelson before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladiolas, gold bronze mums, gold wheat and greenery. The candlebra were filled with off-white tapers.

The bride's attendants were Mrs. Joyce Williams, her twin sister, as Matron of honor; bridesmaids Miss Nancy Chase of Marysville and Miss Sue Soder and Mrs. Mary Hawkinson of Seattle. Larry Wharton, brother of the groom, acted as his best man. Miss Jennifer Wharton, his sister, was candlelighter.

The bride was dressed in a white satin brocade gown, bell-shaped and floor length with long sleeves and a short panel train falling from a flat bow at the back waist. Her butterfly veil was attached to a pearl crown.

The matron of honor and candlelighter wore gowns of gold satin brocade, while the bridesmaids wore bell-haped street length gowns in moss green satin brocade.

The bride carried a white, lace-covered Bible with three orchids, white ribbon streams and tiny hyacinth blossoms. The attendants had sheafs of white glads and gold mums.

Music during the ceremony was by Mrs. Bonnie Bellows, soloist, and Miss Jackie Perry, organist.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall with Mrs. Larry Wylie of Newhalem, cousin of the bride, serving the cake. Mrs. Stacy Tull of Sedro-Woolley and Mrs. Penny Baltau of Seattle assisted with serving the guests, as did Mrs. M. L. Engelhart of Seattle, Godmother of the bride.

After a honeymoon trip to Harrison Hot Springs, the couple left to make their temporary home at Santa Anna. The groom is stationed at El Toro base there. The bride is a 1961 graduate of Concrete high and has been attending business college in Seattle and also working in the offices of Frederick & Nelson. The groom graduated in 1958 from Sedro-Woolley high and is now on his second year in the U. S Marine Corps.

If anyone requires evidence that Spring is about to bless us, this peper is proof. Almost everyone went somewhere and did something last week. Hibernation is over.

Washington may have told the truth when he was president, but since then a lot of old customs have become quaint but not practical.

Seeing we are committed to a life of pressure to conform, non-conformists will still be needed to set pattern of next year's conformism.

The wisdom of old age is often just a resignation to the fact that just because you can't do everything you want to there is no reason to speak ill of it.

David Swenson Weds Girl From Holland

Miss Gerda Droogh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard C. Droogh of the Hague, Holland, was united in marriage to David A. Swenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swenson of Newhalem, Washington.

The Swensons became acquainted with Miss Droogh on their trip to Europe, the summer of 1960.

During their stay in Holland, they also had the pleasure of meeting her parents, at the time little realizing that in two years they would see her again, much less having her for a daughter-in-law.

However she decided to come to the United States within the year. The Swensons encouraged her to come to Seattle to see the Fair, and there she met their son David for the first time, which resulted in their marriage on February 9th.

David graduated from Concrete High School in 1950, finishing his education at the University of Washington. His wife, a surgical nurse, acquired her high school education in Jakarta, Indonesia and her nurses training, the University of the Hague, Holland.

Only this much of your "light bill" is for light

Some people call the bill they get from Puget Power a "light bill," but it really isn't. Less than 20% of it is actually for light. So, perhaps a better name would be "electric service bill," because it also covers the cost of running your water heater, washer and dryer, range, refrigerator, radio, television, frypan, floor polisher... all the appliances you use all the time. The next time you get your "electric service bill," think of all the services it represents. Do you buy anything else that does so much work around your house for so little cost? — PUGET SOUND POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

The District reserves the right to redeem any or all of the unmatured and outstanding bonds of said issue at par, plus accrued interest, on any interest payment date, in inverse numerical order, highest numbers first, on and after ten years from the date of issue, by publishing notice of such intended redemption in the official newspaper of Skagit County, Washington, and in a financial journal of national circulation, such notice to be published once not less than thirty days nor more than forty days prior to the call date, and interest on any bonds so called for redemption shall cease on such call date.

The District has, by resolution of its Commission adopted September 20, 1962, and by vote of the qualified voters therein in the manner provided by law, irrevocably pledged itself to levy taxes annually, without limitation as to rate or amount, upon all property in the District subject to taxation, in an amount sufficient to pay any deficit in the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds when due after application of the revenues of the District toward the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and has pledged the full faith, credit and resources of the District for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds.

Bidders are invited to name the rate of interest which the bonds are to bear not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum. The bonds will be sold to the bidder making the best bid, subject to the right of the District to reject any and all bids or to waive any irregularity therein, and no bid for less than all the bonds shall be considered.

All bids shall be sealed and, except the bid of the State of Washington, if one is received, shall be accompanied by a deposit of two per cent (2%) of the amount of the bid, either in cash or certified or cashier's check, payable to the Treasurer of Skagit County, Washington, which shall be returned if the bid is not accepted. (Only one deposit shall be required of each bidder.) If the bonds are ready for delivery and the successful bidder shall fail and neglect to complete the purchase of the bonds within forty (40) days following the acceptance of his bid, the amount of his deposit shall be forfeited to the District and in that event the District may accept the bid of the one making the next best bid. If there be two or more equal bids for the bonds for not less than par plus accrued interest, and such bids are the best bids received, the Commission shall determine which bid will be accepted. The bonds shall be delivered to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of Skagit County at Mount Vernon, Washington, or in Seattle, Washington, at the District's expense, or at such other place in the United States as the County Treasurer and the successful bidder shall agree upon, at the expense of the purchaser. The District will cause the bonds to be printed or lithographed and signed without expense to the successful bidder.

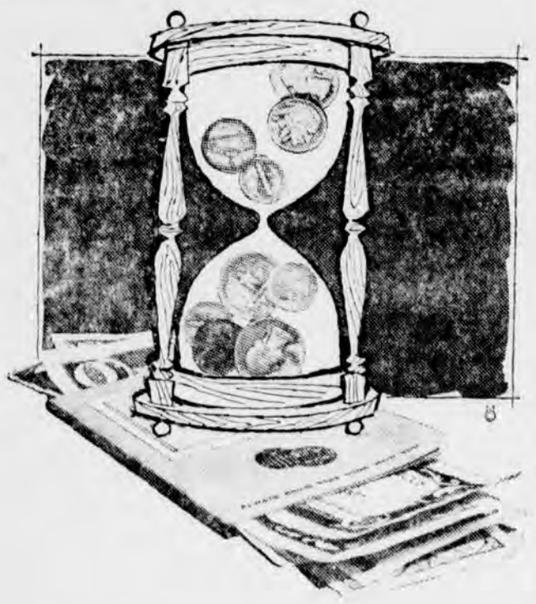
Time IS Money!



So a fair price a home is a better bargain than a small "saving" price elsewhere . . .

A bargain hunter can always find a "buy" if he looks long enough and spends enough time at it. That is fine if you like that sort of thing as a hobby and don't mind the hours. But if you need something right away—NOW—there is no substitute for your home town hardware store.

For his day-to-day service and reliability as a member of your community, a fair price at his store is the best "buy" you can make. It also assures you that he will be there next time you need his services. Don't be fooled by the "Drive and Save" gimmick. Time costs you money, too.
