

FROM THE BOOKSTORE OF THE CONCRETE HERITAGE MUSEUM

Description	Price ea.	Quantity	Total
Tell Edith Goodbye By Michael R. Grimm This is a true crime story of Michael Grimm's family history.	$20
The Concrete Heritage Museum Cookbook Favorite recipes from museum members, friends and family. We hope that some of our old favorites will become your new favorites.	$16
The Story of Kate 1867 - 1944 by Jean Claybo Told from the perspective of Katherine Quackenbush-Glover of the building of the telephone lines with her sister Nell at the turn of 20th century Skagit.	$18
So They Called the Town "Concrete" by Charles M. Dwelley Deluxe, perfect-bound edition	$18

Send with check or money order to Concrete Heritage Museum, PO Box 445, Concrete, WA 98237

* add $8.00 for shipping and handling, up to two books.

Name _____

Street _____

City, State, Zip _____

Total enclosed $ _____